

Contents

Foreword by Peter Charanis	vii
Preface	ix
List of Illustrations	xv
Chronological Outline	xix
Introduction	xxxvii
1. Apprenticeship in Empire, 1350–1391	1
2. The Failure of Appeasement, 1391–1394	84
3. The Quest for Aid, 1394–1402	123
4. Byzantium in the Turkish Time of Troubles, 1399–1413	200
5. The Final Struggles, 1413–1425	290
6. Manuel as an Emperor: Some Conclusions	386
7. Manuel as a Personality and a Literary Figure	395
Appendices
I. The Pawning of the Byzantine Crown Jewels to Venice	443
II. Turkish Attacks on Thessalonica in the Fourteenth Century and Their Source Problems, with a Supplement on Some Thessalonian Liturgical Acclamations	446
III. The Tower of Anemas	457
IV. The Visit of Andronicus IV to Murad I and the Cession of Gallipoli to the Turks	458
V. The Marriage of John VII	462
VI. John V's Destruction of Fortifications in 1391	467
	xiii

VII. The Burial Places of John V and Adronicus IV	469
VIII. A Reference by Manuel to the Dervishes	471
IX. The Marital Status of Manuel Palaeologus, and the Last Years of His Mother, Helena Cantacuzena	474
X. The Beginning and Duration of Bayazid's Siege of Constantinople	479
XI. King Sigismund's Letter from Constantinople after Nicopolis	482
XII. A Venetian Grant to a Byzantine Ambassador	486
XIII. Manuel's Letter of Appeal to King Charles VI of France	488
XIV. The Reconciliation of John VII and Manuel in 1399	490
XV. Manuel's Family in the Morea, and His Subsequent Children	494
XVI. Manuel's Letter of Thanks to King Henry IV of England	497
XVII. John VII's Letter to King Henry IV of England	500
XVIII. Byzantine Relations with Timur	504
XIX. Manuel's Supposed Visit to the Pope	510
XX. Manuel's Literary Revenge on Bayazid	513
XXI. The Date of Manuel's Letter vs'	519
XXII. The Date of Manuel's Funeral Oration for His Brother Theodore	525
XXIII. Manuel's Letter-Discourse to Alexius Iagoup	528
XXIV. Notes on the Illustrations	531
Bibliography	552
Indices
Index to Literary Works by Manuel Cited, Discussed, or Translated	579
General Index	582