

Contents

Abbreviations	9
Introduction	11
I The Scholastic Concept of Poetry and the Authorisation of the Poetic Fable	17
I.1 Questions of Truth and Falsehood: The Scholastic Concept of Poetry	17
I.2 Constructing Poetic Authority: The Authorisation of the Poetic Fable	30
I.2.1 The Explicit Authorisation of Poetic Fiction	34
I.2.2 The Implicit Authorisation of Poetic Fiction	46
I.2.3 Scholastic Authorisation and Vernacular Poetry	55
II Finding the Truth Behind Chaucer's Fables and Empowering the English Reader	59
II.1 Authorising Chaucer in Fifteenth-Century England: Finding the Truth Behind Chaucer's Fables	59
II.1.1 The Explicit Authorisation of Chaucer's Poetry	64
II.1.2 The Implicit Authorisation of Chaucer's Poetry	73
II.2 Chaucer's Doubts and Lydgate's Worries: Empowering the English Reader	83
II.2.1 Poetic Authority in The Nun's Priest's Tale	84
II.2.2 Poetic Authority in The Manciple's Tale	90
II.2.3 Poetic Authority in Isopes Fabules	96
II.2.4 Poetic Authority in The Churl and the Bird	105

III Poetic Authority, Vernacular Fable and the Empowered Reader in Early Printed Editions of the Canterbury Tales	115
III.1 Poetic Authority, Vernacular Fable and the Empowered Reader in William Caxton's Canterbury Tales	115
III.2 Poetic Authority, Vernacular Fable and the Empowered Reader in Wynkyn de Worde's Canterbury Tales	126
Conclusion	139
Appendix A: Poetic Authority and Chaucer's Fables	143
Appendix B: Paraphs and Initials as Additions to The Nun's Priest's Tale and The Manciple's Tale in MSS Hengwrt (Hg), Ellesmere (El), Arch. Selden. B.14 (Se) and in de Worde's 1498-edition of the Canterbury Tales (Wn)	145
Appendix C: The Presentation of The Nun's Priest's Tale and The Manciple's Tale in Oxford, Bodleian Library MS Arch. Selden. B.14	157
Bibliography	163
Unpublished Manuscripts Cited	163
Published Manuscripts and Early Printed Books Cited	163
Primary Works Cited (Classical, Medieval & Renaissance)	164
Secondary Works Cited	168