

Contents

Advice to the reader	ix
Acknowledgements	xix
Abbreviations	xxi
A note on the arrangement of the text	xxiii
A note on item numbers	xxv
A note on the location of the principal manuscripts	xxvii

SECTION A PRIMARY TEXTS 1

I Original publication; reprints 3

II Collected editions 5

III Selections 7

SECTION B BIBLIOGRAPHICAL AIDS TO THE STUDY OF BROWNING 9

I Bibliographies 11

II Concordances 14

III Handbooks 15

SECTION C	BIOGRAPHICAL AND CRITICAL STUDIES	17
I	Biographical studies	19
	(a) Full-length	19
	(b) Accounts of particular periods in Browning's life	22
II	Critical studies	24
	(a) General studies	24
	1–2 Books and articles about Browning's poetry as a whole	24
	3 Books on wider topics that deal substantially with Browning	28
	4 Books and articles on specific topics	32
	(i) Techniques: The dramatic monologue; versification, metrics, vocabulary	33
	(ii) Subjects: Moral/aesthetic theory; religion and philosophy; music; politics; painting; history; classical learning	37
	(iii) Browning's reputation	42
	(b) Particular studies	43
	1 Early poems (1833–40)	43
	(i) Books and articles on the period in general	43
	(ii) Studies of single poems	45
	2 Bells and Pomegranates (1841–49)	47
	(i) General works on the period	47
	(ii) Studies of specific poems	48
	(iii) The plays	53

Contents

vii

3	The work of the 1850s	55
	(i) Christmas-Eve and Easter-Day	55
	(ii) The Essay on Shelley	56
	(iii) Men and Women (1855): General works; studies of specific poems	57
4	Dramatis Personae	68
	(i) General works	68
	(ii) Studies of specific poems	68
5	The Ring and the Book	72
6	The work of the 1870s	76
	(i) General works	76
	(ii) Studies of specific poems	78
7	The last decade	82
(c)	Collections of critical studies	87
SECTION D THE LETTERS		91
	Index to poems	97
	General index	100