

Contents

|                       |   |     |
|-----------------------|---|-----|
| LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS | ix  |     |
| ABBREVIATIONS         | xi  |     |
| CHAPTER ONE           | The Dark Historic Page: Romanticism andHistoricism in Huxley's Social Satire  | 3   |
| CHAPTER TWO           | The Green Heart of England   | 31  |
| 1.                    | Huxley's "Happy Rural Seat": Crome Yellow andthe Problem of History  | 31  |
| 2.                    | History and the Urban Labyrinth in Antic Hay   | 54  |
| 3.                    | Prophecy and Piranesi in Antic Hay   | 67  |
| 4.                    | Lilian Aldwinkle's Palace of Art: Historicism andthe Baroque in Those Barren Leaves                                    | 73  |
| CHAPTER THREE         | The Descending Road of Modern History  | 99  |
| 1.                    | History and Decadence in Point Counter Point   | 99  |
| 2.                    | The Molecular Theory of Personality in Point CounterPoint, Eyeless in Gaza, and After Many a Summer Diesthe Swan | 126 |
| 3                     | Brave New World: Huxley's Dystopian Dilemma  | 135 |
| CHAPTER FOUR          | History and Ideology in Eyeless in Gaza  | 146 |
| 1.                    | Historicism, Politics, and the Drain-Pipeof Weltanschauung  | 146 |
| 2.                    | Historical and Trans-Historical Apocalypse in Eyelessin Gaza  | 174 |

|              |  |     |
|--------------|--|-----|
| CHAPTER FIVE | Conclusion: After Many a Summer Diesthe Swan           | 187 |
| 1.           | Huxley's "Most Serious Parable" and the "Spiral ofDevelopment" | 187 |
| 2.           | History and the Castle-Museum                                      | 195 |
| 3.           | Sadomasochism, Death, and History in the BeverlyPantheon       | 212 |
|              | NOTES  | 231 |
|              | BIBLIOGRAPHY   | 243 |
|              | INDEX  | 247 |