

Contents

Editors' Preface and Acknowledgments   vii
Juan J. Linz and Alfred Stepan

PART I.    CRISIS, BREAKDOWN, AND REEQUILIBRATION

Juan J. Linz

1. Introduction    3
2. Elements of Breakdown    14
3. The Process of Breakdown    50
4. The End of Democracy    75
5. The Process of Reequilibration    87

PART II.    EUROPE

Juan J. Linz and Alfred Stepan, editors

1. Social Conflict, Parliamentary Fragmentation, Institutional Shift, and the Rise of Fascism: Italy    3
Paolo Farneti
2. From Fragmented Party Democracy to Government by Emergency Decree and National Socialist Takeover: Germany    34
M. Rainer Lepsius
3. Democracy in the Shadow of Imposed Sovereignty: The First Republic of Austria    80
Walter B. Simon
4. The Lapua Movement: The Threat of Rightist Takeover in Finland, 1930–32    122
Risto Alapuro and Erik Allardt
5. From Great Hopes to Civil War: The Breakdown of Democracy in Spain    142
Juan J. Linz

PART III. LATIN AMERICA

Juan J. Linz and Alfred Stepan, editors

1. The Breakdown of Democracy in Argentina, 1916-30 3
Peter H. Smith
2. Conversations among Gentlemen: Oligarchical Democracy in Colombia 28
Alexander W. Wilde
3. Venezuela since 1958: The Consolidation of Democratic Politics 82
Daniel H. Levine
4. Political Leadership and Regime Breakdown: Brazil 110
Alfred Stepan
5. Permanent Crisis and the Failure to Create a Democratic Regime: Argentina, 1955-66 138
Guillermo O'Donnell
6. A Structural-Historical Approach to the Breakdown of Democratic Institutions: Peru 178
Julio Cotler

PART IV CHILE

Arturo Valenzuela

Introduction i

1. Chilean Politics at Mid-Century 3
2. The Late 1960s and the Election of Allende: Socioeconomic Change and Political Crisis 22
3. The Move to a Socialist Society and the Erosion of the Political Center 50
4. The Chilean Military, the 1973 Election, and Institutional Breakdown 81

Biographical Notes 135

Indexes 139