

Contents

Chapter 1
What is Political Management? 1

Chapter 2
Politics and Polity: A Delicate Equipoise 5

Chapter 3
Society, Law, and Legitimation 23

Chapter 4
Politics, Representation and Sovereignty 45

Chapter 5
Problems of Institutional Polity 69

Chapter 6
Discretion in Politics, Administration and Law 93

Chapter 7
Is a “Practical” Science of Politics Possible? 123

Chapter 8
How to Make Social Science Responsibly Political 143

Chapter 9
The University as a Training Ground for Citizenship 165

Chapter 10
Citizens, Agents and Members in the Modern Territorial State . . . 193

Chapter 11
Some Arguments Against Political Management 223

Chapter 12
The Privilege of Experience 253

Reprise 289

Literature 291

Subject Index 309