PART 1 FOUNDATIONS OF QUALITATIVE RESEARCH 1

1 Why and How to Do Qualitative Research 3

The Relevance of Qualitative Research 3
Research Questions as a Starting Point 4
Limitations of Quantitative Research 5
Essential Features 6
A Brief History of Qualitative Research 9
Qualitative Research at the End of Modernity 13
Landmarks in Qualitative Research: A Checklist 14
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 15

2 The Qualitative–Quantitative Distinction 18

Relations of Qualitative and Quantitative Research 18
Linking Qualitative and Quantitative Research in One Design 22
Combining Qualitative and Quantitative Data 25
Combining Qualitative and Quantitative Methods 26
Linking Qualitative and Quantitative Results 26
Research Evaluation and Generalization 27
Mixed-methods Research 28
Methods' Appropriateness as a Point of Reference 29
Deciding Between Qualitative and Quantitative Research: A Checklist 30

Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 31

3 Theoretical Frameworks 34

Positivism 35
Constructionism 36
Construction of Knowledge 37
Feminism 38
Research Perspectives 40
Symbolic Interactionism 41
Ethnomethodology 44
Structuralist Models 46
Rivalry of Paradigms or Triangulation of Perspectives 48
Common Features of the Different Positions 49
Guideline Questions for Locating Procedures in Theoretical Frameworks: A Checklist 51
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 52

4 Methods and Data in Qualitative Research 56

Research Programmes in Qualitative Research 56
Major Methods and Types of Data 60
General Issues 63
Locating a Study in the Field: A Checklist 63
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 64

5 Texts as Data in Qualitative Research 67

Text and Realities 68
Text as World Making: First-degree and Second-degree Constructions 69
Social Constructions as Starting Points 70
World Making in the Text: Mimesis 71
Mimesis: Biography and Narrative 74
Relations between Text and Social World: A Checklist 77
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 78

PART 2 RESEARCH DESIGN 81

6 Formulating a Research Question 83

Origins of Research Questions 84
Cutting Questions to Size 86
Specifying an Area of Interest and Delimiting the Issue 86
Sensitizing Concepts and the Triangulation of Perspectives 87
Types of Research Questions 88
Good and Bad Research Questions 92
Research Questions and Practice 93

Research Questions: A Checklist 94
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 95

7 Choosing and Constructing the Research Design 97

How to Plan and Construct Designs in Qualitative Research 98
Shortcut Strategies 102
Online Qualitative Research 103
Basic Designs in Qualitative Research 107
Case Studies 107
Comparative Studies 109
Retrospective Studies 111
Snapshots: Analysis of State and Process at the Time of the Investigation 113
Longitudinal Studies 115
Starting Points for Selecting a Research Design 117
Criteria-based Comparison of the Approaches 117
Research Designs: A Checklist 119
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 121

8 Planning the Process in Qualitative Research 124

Research as Linear Process 125
The Concept of Process in Grounded Theory Research 125
Linearity and Circularity of the Process 127
Theories in the Research Process as Versions of the World 127
The Research Process in Qualitative Research in General 130
Process in Qualitative Research: A Checklist 131
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 131

9 Ethics of Doing Qualitative Research 134

The Need for Ethics in Research 134
Codes of Ethics 136
Ethics Committees 139
How to Act Ethically 140
Qualitative Research Ethics – Necessary for Better Research 146
Ethical Issues: A Checklist 146
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 147

10 Using The Existing Literature 150

How and When to Use the Literature 150
How to Use the Theoretical Literature 151
How to Use Theories 152
How to Use the Empirical Literature 153
How to Use the Methodological Literature 154
How to Use the Literature When Writing about Your Study 155
Where to Search the Literature 156

How to Search the Literature 156
Doing Literature Reviews: A Checklist 157
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 158

11 Entering the Field 161

The Problem of Access 161
Role Definitions When Entering an Open Field 162
Access to Institutions 163
Access to Individuals 165
Strangeness and Familiarity 166
Strategies of Gaining Access – Examples 168
Field Access: A Checklist 169
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 170

12 Sampling 173

Frameworks of Sampling for Data Collection 173
Defining the Sample Structure Beforehand 174
Defining the Sample Structure Step by Step 176
Sampling Step by Step as a General Principle 179
Purposive Sampling 180
Aims of Sampling: Width or Depth 182
Case Constitution in the Sample 183
Sampling Decisions in the Research Process 185
Qualitative Sampling: A Checklist 186
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 187

13 Extending Qualitative Designs with Triangulation 190

Types and Definition of Triangulation 191
Triangulation Step by Step 193
Issues Arising from Applying Triangulation 198
Triangulation as Systematization of Qualitative Methods 199
Triangulation: A Checklist 200
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 201

PART 3 VERBAL DATA 203

14 Collecting Verbal Data 205

What Are Verbal Data? 205
Why Verbal Data? Aims and Target Groups 206
Types of Verbal Data 207
What Are Interviews? 209
What Characterizes Narratives? 209
What Are Focus Groups? 209
Starting Points for Selecting an Approach for Collecting Verbal Data 209

Collecting Verbal Data: A Checklist 212
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 213

15 Doing Interviews 216

How to Conduct Interviews 217
The Focused Interview 220
The Semi-standardized Interview 226
The Problem-centred Interview 232
Expert and Elite Interviews 236
The Ethnographic Interview 241
Online Interviewing 243
How to Analyse Interviews 246
Criteria-based Comparison of the Approaches 247
Doing Interviews: A Checklist 248
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 250

16 Doing Focus Groups 254

Group Interviews 255
Group Discussions 255
Focus Groups 262
Online Focus Groups 266
How to Analyse Focus Groups 269
Criteria-based Comparison of the Approaches 271
Doing Focus Groups: A Checklist 273
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 273

17 Using Narrative Data 277

Narratives: Why and How? Backgrounds and Approaches 277
The Narrative Interview 279
The Episodic Interview 287
Between Biography and Episode 294
Joint Narratives 294
Criteria-based Comparison of Narrative Approaches of Collecting Data 296
How to Analyse Narratives 297
Small Narratives and Constructionist Analysis 302
Using Narrative Data: A Checklist 304
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 304

PART 4 DATA BEYOND TALK 309

18 Collecting Data Beyond Talk 311

Aims of Collecting Data Beyond Talk 312
Types of Data Beyond Talk 312
What Is Observation? 313

What Is Participant Observation? 313
What Is Ethnography? 314
What Is Virtual Ethnography? 314
What Is Visual Qualitative Research? 315
What Are Documents? 316
What Are Digital Data? 316
Starting Points for Selecting an Approach for Collecting Data Beyond Talk 317
Data Beyond Talk: A Checklist 319
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 321

19 Observation and Ethnography 324

Observation 325
Participant Observation 329
Ethnography 336
Writing Field Notes 340
Virtual Ethnography 342
Criteria-based Comparison of the Approaches 346
Analysing Observations and Ethnographies 348
Doing Observation and Ethnography: A Checklist 348
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 349

20 Visual Data: Photography, Film and Video 354

Photographs as an Instrument and Object of Research 354
Film Analysis as an Instrument of Research 362
Video Analysis in Qualitative Research 366
Criteria-based Comparison of the Approaches 370
Using Visual Data: A Checklist 371
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 372

21 Using Documents as Data 375

What Characterizes Documents? 376
Using Documents as Data: More than Textual Analysis 378
Selecting Documents 378
Constructing a Corpus 379
The Practicalities of Using Documents 380
How to Analyse Documents 382
Analysing Internet Documents 383
Criteria-based Comparison of the Approaches 385
Working with Documents: A Checklist 386
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 387

22 Digital and Social Media Research 390

Social Media and Their Relevance 391
Research Questions in Social Media Research 392

How to Plan and Construct Designs in Qualitative Social Media Research 393
Data for (Qualitative) Social Media Research 394
Collecting Digital and Social Media Data with Qualitative Methods 396
Using Twitter for Qualitative Research 397
Using Facebook for Qualitative Research 400
Using Blogs for Qualitative Research 404
Collecting Digital Data with Smartphones 408
Combining Virtual and Traditional Qualitative Research Methods 410
Methodological Issues 411
Big Data as a Challenge and a Threat for Qualitative Research 412
Criteria-based Comparison of the Approaches 412
Digital and Social Media Research: A Checklist 414
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 414

PART 5 QUALITATIVE DATA ANALYSIS 417

23 Analysing Qualitative Data 419

Aims of Qualitative Data Analysis 419
Definition – What Is Qualitative Data Analysis? 420
Data Management 421
Using Naturally Occurring or Solicited Data 421
Methods or Data as Points of Reference 422
What Is Coding? 423
What Is Sequential Analysis? 423
What Is Interpretation? 425
Starting Points for Selecting an Approach for Qualitative Data Analysis 426
Criteria-based Comparison of the Approaches 426
Methods of Qualitative Data Analysis: A Checklist 429
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 431

24 Transcription and Data Management 433

Technological Progress and Problems of Recording Data 434
Research Diaries 436
Documentation Sheets 436
Transcription 438
Reality as Text: Text as New Reality 441
Data Management 442
Transcription and Data Management: A Checklist 444
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 445

25 Grounded Theory Coding 448

Grounded Theory Methodology 448
Key Steps towards Grounded Theory Analysis 450
Grounded Theory Analysis 453

Grounded Theory Coding: Ways and Versions 454
Which Approach to Choose? 466
Grounded Theory Coding: Integrated Approach or Starting Point? 469
Grounded Theory Coding: A Checklist 469
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 470

26 Thematic Coding and Content Analysis 473

Thematic Analysis 474
Thematic Coding 476
Qualitative Content Analysis 482
Criteria-based Comparison of Approaches 488
Thematic Coding and Qualitative Content Analysis: A Checklist 489
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 491

27 Using Naturally Occurring Data: Conversation, Discourse and Hermeneutic Analysis 494

Conversation Analysis 496
Discourse Analysis 501
Genre Analysis 505
Objective Hermeneutics 507
Social Science Hermeneutics and Hermeneutic Sociology of Knowledge 512
Criteria-based Comparison of Approaches to Naturally Occurring Data 513
Naturally Occurring Data: A Checklist 514
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 515

28 Using Software in Qualitative Data Analysis 519

New Technologies: Hopes, Fears and Fantasies 519
Ways of Using Software and Computers in Qualitative Research 520
Why Use Software for Analysing Qualitative Data? 521
History and State of Development of QDA Software 523
Software for Analysing Qualitative Data: How to Choose? 524
Examples: ATLAS.ti, NVivo and MAXQDA 525
How to Use Software in Qualitative Research 529
Software's Impact on Qualitative Research: Examples 530
Recent Developments: CAQDAS 2.0 531
Using CAQDAS: A Checklist 534
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 534

PART 6 GROUNDING, WRITING AND OUTLOOK 537

29 Quality of Qualitative Research: Criteria and Beyond 539

Selective Plausibilization 540
Using Classical Criteria 541
Alternative Criteria 547

Traditional or Alternative Criteria: New Answers to Old Questions? 552
Quality Assessment as a Challenge for Qualitative Research 554
Quality Criteria or Strategies of Quality Assurance? 554
Strategies of Generalization in Qualitative Research 555
Process Evaluation and Quality Management 558
Indication for Qualitative Research 560
Selecting Qualitative Methods: A Checklist 563
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 566

30 Writing Qualitative Research 569

Pragmatic Function of Writing: Presentation of Results 570
Legitimizing Function of Writing 574
Making Qualitative Research Relevant 577
Reflexive Function of Writing 577
Dissolution of Social Science into Styles of Writing? 578
Writing about Qualitative Research: A Checklist 579
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 580

31 State of the Art and the Future 583

Qualitative Research Today 584
Methodological Developments and Trends 587
How to Learn and How to Teach Qualitative Research 591
The Future of Qualitative Research: Art or Method? 593
Locating Your Research Project: A Checklist 594
Exercises for Reflecting on the Chapter and for Planning Your Project 595
