

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xvii
Note on Language and Translation	xxiii
Introduction: Subsistence Citizenship	1
Part I: The Frames of Subsistence in Singida: Cosmology, Ethnography, History
1 Hunger in Relief: Village Life and Livelihood	25
2 The Unpredictable Grace of the Sun: Cosmology, Conquest, and the Politics of Subsistence	48
Part II: The Power of the Poor on the Threshold of Subsistence
3 We Shall Meet at the Pot of Ugali: Sociality, Differentiation, and Diversion in the Distribution of Food	79
4 Crying, Denying, and Surviving Rural Hunger	106
Part III: Subsistence Citizenship
5 Subsistence versus Development	131
6 Patronage, Rights, and the Idioms of Rural Citizenship	151
Conclusion: The Seasons of Subsistence and Citizenship	177
Bibliography	183
Index	201