Table of Contents

Chapter 1. Introduction - An overview, previous work..... page 1

Chapter 2. The Inner Man - Augustine's explanatory device, chronology of the Inner Man, dualism, the Outer Man, the Inner Man, analogue models and explanation, criteria for evaluation of models..... page 8

Chapter 3. The Possibility of Knowledge, Si fallor, sum - the sceptical problems, various versions of Si fallor, sum, evaluation of Si fallor, sum..... page 39

Chapter 4. Memory - Sceptical problems for memory, Augustine's language, analysis of problems for memory, Augustine's response to scepticism, taking scepticism seriously, memory and other knowledge, Augustine and memory, memory is central to all knowledge..... page 61

Chapter 5. Perception, Visio Spiritualis - Sensation and knowledge, approaching the problem: ontological considerations, approaching the problem: appearance and reality, the three visions, visio corporis, visio spiritualis, visio intellectus, perception as representation, the role of visio spiritualis, vital attention, how the inner man does his job, explanation and the inner man..... page 93

Chapter 6. Illumination, A priori knowledge and order - Necessary truth, Augustine's presentation of illumination, principal ideas, exclusive use of inner sight and inner hearing, principal ideas are ideogenetic, Augustine and Plato, the problem of General Terms, standards of judgment, the Cartographic model..... page 133

Chapter 7. Understanding and Communication - Visio intellectus is the faculty of judgment, intellectual vision, judgment, error, the inner dialogue, Ockham's mental language, inner speech and outer speech, communication, thought, the roles of inner sight and inner speech, an evaluation..... page 162

Chapter 8. Augustine and Idealism - The inner man considered, Augustine's use of the inner man, the dominant case, evaluation, present tense criteria, past tense criteria, interiority, memory, sensation, a priori knowledge, Augustine's historical placement..... page 205

Appendix, List of Abbreviations..... page 228

Index..... page 230