Contents

| Ho   | ow Young People Develop a Taste for the World        | 1   |
|------|--|---|
| 1    | Beyond Cultural Homogenization                       | 2   |
| 2    | Ordinary Aesthetico-Cultural Cosmopolitanism         | 4   |
| 3    | A Doubly Unique Protocol                             | 7   |
| Bil  | pliography   | 10  |
| rt I | Configurations of a Taste for the World              | 13  |
| Tih  | e Morphology of Cultural Consumption Repertoires     | 15  |
| 1    | The Globalization of Culture                         | 16  |
| 2    | Mise en genre: Between Appropriation and Attribution | 21  |
| 3    | Different Forms of Openness to Different Cultural    |   |
|      | Products   | 25  |
| 4    | American Exoticism as a Generational Marker          | 31  |
| Bib  | oliography   | 43  |
| Fre  | om Global Cultural References to Global Imaginaries  | 45  |
| 1    | An Aesthetic and Cultural World                      | 47  |
| 2    | Historical, Scientific, and Athletic Imaginaries     | 52  |
|      | 1 2 3 Bib 1 2 3 4 Bib 1 From 1                       | 2 Ordinary Aesthetico-Cultural Cosmopolitanism 3 A Doubly Unique Protocol Bibliography  rt I Configurations of a Taste for the World  The Morphology of Cultural Consumption Repertoires 1 The Globalization of Culture 2 Mise en genre: Between Appropriation and Attribution 3 Different Forms of Openness to Different Cultural Products 4 American Exoticism as a Generational Marker Bibliography  From Global Cultural References to Global Imaginaries 1 An Aesthetic and Cultural World |

|    | 3 Orienting Oneself in the WorldBibliography   | 6167 |  |  |  |
|----|--|----------|--|--|--|
| 4  | Five Configurations of Aesthetico-Cultural   |          |  |  |  |
| •  | Cosmopolitanism  | 69       |  |  |  |
|    | 1 Inadvertent Cosmopolitans  | 71       |  |  |  |
|    | 2 Specific Cosmopolitans   | 78       |  |  |  |
|    | 3 Cosmopolitan Fans  | 82       |  |  |  |
|    | 4 National Fans  | 87       |  |  |  |
|    | 5 Impossible Cosmopolitans   | 92       |  |  |  |
|    | Bibliography   | 100      |  |  |  |
| Co | onclusion to Part I: A Continuum of Configurations   | 103      |  |  |  |
|    | Bibliography   | 104      |  |  |  |
| Pa | rt II What Determines a Taste for the World?   | 105      |  |  |  |
|    |  |          |  |  |  |
| 5  | Omnivorism and Aesthetico-Cultural Cosmopolitanism  Revisiting Omnivorism as the Refined Standard of | 109      |  |  |  |
|    | Good Taste   | 110      |  |  |  |
|    | 2 Are Aesthetico-Cultural Cosmopolitans Omnivores?   | 116      |  |  |  |
|    | 3 Cosmopolitism, Omnivorism, and Social Stratification   | 129      |  |  |  |
|    | Bibliography   | 131      |  |  |  |
| 6  | Language Skills and Aesthetico-Cultural  |          |  |  |  |
|    | Cosmopolitanism  |          |  |  |  |
|    | 1 A Primarily Francophone Environment  | 136      |  |  |  |
|    | 2 Foreign Language Consumption Practices   | 140      |  |  |  |
|    |  | 145      |  |  |  |
|    | 3 Inconsistently Mobilized Language Skills   | 14,      |  |  |  |

| 7  | Mobility and Aesthetico-Cultural Cosmopolitanism         | 153 |
|----|--|-----|
|    | 1 From an Interest in Elsewhere to a Desire for Mobility | 153 |
|    | 2 Experiencing Alterity Through Personal and Vicarious   |     |
|    | Mobility   | 168 |
|    | 3 The Uneven Effects of Mobility on Aesthetico-Cultural  |     |
|    | Cosmopolitanism  | 175 |
|    | Bibliography   | 181 |
| Co | onclusion to Part II: Cultural Capital and the Challenge |     |
| of | 183  |     |
|    | Bibliography   | 187 |
|    |  |     |
| Pa | rt III Cosmopolitan Amateurs                             | 189 |
|    | •  |     |
| 8  | Understanding the World                                  | 193 |
|    | 1 The Cosmopolitan Amateur Interprets the World          | 193 |
|    | 2 Spotting Distance                                      | 196 |
|    | 3 Understanding the World Through Artworks and           |     |
|    | Cultural Products  | 200 |
|    | 4 Acquiring Knowledge Through Artworks and               |     |
|    | Cultural Products  | 207 |
|    | Bibliography   | 220 |
| 9  | Feeling the World  | 223 |
|    | 1 Emotions and Cosmopolitanism                           | 223 |
|    | 2 The Criteria of Cosmopolitan Emotional Attachment      | 226 |
|    | 3 Engaging in the World Through Emotions                 | 232 |
|    | 4 The Dynamic of Cosmopolitan Skills and Attachments     | 239 |
|    | Bibliography   | 256 |

| 10  | Tensions and Divisions                                | 259 |  |
|-----|---|-----|--|
|     | 1 Art and Culture as a Means to Bring People Together | 260 |  |
|     | 2 Cosmopolitanism as Bildung                          | 262 |  |
|     | 3 Cosmopolitanism as Empowerment                      | 269 |  |
|     | 4 Cosmopolitanism as a Test of Belonging              | 276 |  |
|     | Bibliography  |     |  |
| Cor | clusion to Part III: Rejecting the Cultural Discount  |     |  |
| Hy  | Hypothesis  |     |  |
|     | Bibliography  | 291 |  |
| 14  | General Conclusion: A Modern Sensibility for Today's  |     |  |
|     | World   | 293 |  |
|     | 1 The Aesthetico-Cultural Gateway: A Step Towards     |     |  |
|     | Neo-cosmopolitanism                                   | 294 |  |
|     | 2 The Promises and Limits of Neo-cosmopolitanism      | 295 |  |
|     | 3 Towards a Cosmopolitan Education                    | 296 |  |
|     | 4 From Aesthetico-Cultural Concerns to the Political  |     |  |
|     | Realm   | 298 |  |
|     | Bibliography  | 299 |  |
| Anr | exes  | 301 |  |
|     | Annex 1: Survey Methodology                           | 301 |  |
|     | Annex 2: Overview of the Quantitative Sample          | 303 |  |
|     | Annex 3: Overview of the Interviews                   | 307 |  |
|     | Annex 4: Five Configurations of Aesthetico-Cultural   |     |  |
|     | Cosmopolitanism                                       | 330 |  |
|     | Annex 5: Measuring Omnivorism                         | 369 |  |
|     | Annex 6: Language Skills                              | 376 |  |
|     | Annex 7: Mobilities                                   | 379 |  |
|     | Annex 8: Logistic Regression Analysis                 | 387 |  |
| Ind | ex  | 393 |  |