

Contents

List of Contributors	ii
Preface Roger Morgan	vii
1. Introduction Vernon Bogdanor	1
Part A: Single-member Constituency Systems
2. MPs and their Constituents in Britain: The History of the Relationship Hugh Berrington	15
3. MPs and their Constituents in Britain: How Strong are the Links? Ivor Crewe	44
4. The United States: Members of Congress and their Districts Philip Williams	66
5. MPs and their Constituents in Australia Joan Rydon	86
6. The Role of the Député in France John Frears	103
7. The West German Deputy Tony Burkett	117
Part B: National Constituency Systems
8. The Netherlands Ken Gladdish	135

Part C: Multi-member Constituency Systems

9. Parliamentarians and their Constituents in Italy's Party Democracy
Geoffrey Pridham 151
10. Citizens and National Parliamentarians in Belgium: Sectional Representation in a Multi-Party System
Andrew MacMullen 166
11. The Case of Austria: Neo-Corporatism and Social Partnership
Anton Pelinka 184
12. Members of Parliament and Access to Politics in Scandinavia
Alastair H. Thomas 199
13. The Relationship of the Citizen to 'his' Member of Parliament in the Swiss System of Government
Christopher Hughes 224
14. Ireland: From Friends and Neighbours to Clients and Partisans. Some Dimensions of Parliamentary Representation under PR-STV
Brian Farrell 237

Part D: Conceptual Problems

15. The Constituency
Michael Steed 267
16. The Contemporary Context of Representation
S. E. Finer 286
17. Conclusion
Vernon Bogdanor 293
- Index 302