

CONTENTS

Contributors vii

Introduction: Flying the Flag for Contemporary Transatlantic Television Drama 1
Michele Hilmes, Roberta Pearson, and Matt Hills

PART ONE: TRANSATLANTIC INDUSTRIES

Introduction 27

1. Making Masterpiece Matter: The Transnational Cultural Work of America's Longest-Running Drama Program 31
Michele Hilmes

2. Traveling without a Passport: "Original" Streaming Content in the Transatlantic Distribution Ecosystem 49
Karen Petruska and Faye Woods

3. BBC America: Cloning Drama for a Transnational Network 69
Christine Becker

4. Branding Bridges: Sky Atlantic, "Quality" Imports, and Brand Integration 87
Sam Ward

PART TWO: TRANSATLANTIC PROGRAMS

Introduction 105

5. Sherlock and Elementary: The Cultural and Temporal Value of High-End and Routine Transatlantic Television Drama 109
Roberta Pearson

v

6. Mainstream Trends and Masterpiece Traditions: ITV's Downton Abbey as a Hit Heritage Drama for Masterpiece in the United States Eva N. Redvall	131
7. Boundary Collisions in HBO-BBC Transnational Coproduction: Rome and Parade's End Robin Nelson	147
8. Metacommentary and Mythology: Episodes as a Performance of Transatlantic TV Jonathan Bignell	163
9. Game of Thrones : Investigating British Acting Simone Knox and Gary Cassidy	181

PART THREE: TRANSATLANTIC FANS AND AUDIENCES

Introduction	203
10. Black Mirror as a Netflix Original: Program Brand "Overflow" and the Multidiscursive Forms of Transatlantic TV Fandom Matt Hills	213
11. Contextualizing "Quality" US Television Programs for the United Kingdom: The Guardian's Media Blog and the Role of Critics Paul Rixon	239
12. Fans, Fezzes, and Freebies: Branding British Television Series at the San Diego Comic-Con Lincoln Geraghty	257
13. From Imagined Communities to Contact Zones: American Monoculture in Transatlantic Fandoms Lori Morimoto	273
14. Crossing over the Atlantic: SuperWhoLock as Transnational/Transcultural Fan Text Paul Booth	291
Glossary	305
Index	307