

CONTENTS

- |   |   |    |
|---|---|----|
| 1 | Mocking the Weak? Contexts, Theories, PoliticsHelen Davies and Sarah Ilott                                 | 1  |
| 2 | Taking Liberties? Free Speech, Multiculturalism and the Ethics of SatireAnshuman A. Mondal                 | 25 |
| 3 | Openness, Otherness, and Expertise: Uncertainty and Trust in Stewart Lee's Comedy VehicleRob Hawkes | 43 |
| 4 | British Multiculturalism, Romantic Comedy, and the Lie of Social UnificationSarah Ilott                    | 61 |
| 5 | Parodying Racial Passing in Chappelle's Show and Key &amp; PeeleJanine Bradbury              | 79 |
| 6 | Blackness and Banal Whiteness: Abjection and Identity in the Italian Christmas ComedyAlan O'Leary          | 99 |

- 7 Sexual and National Difference in the High-Speed, Popular Surrealism of Tommy Handley and Ronald Frankau's Double Acts, 1929–1936 117
Neil Washbourne
- 8 From Terry and June to Terry and Julian: June Whitfield and the British Suburban Sitcom 137
Rosie White
- 9 Saintly Cretins and Ugly Buglys: Laughing at Victorian Disability in *Hunderby 153
Helen Davies
- 10 Standing Up to False Binaries in Humour and Autism: A Dialogue 171
Kate Fox
- 11 Comedy and the Representation of the British Working Class from On the Buses to *This Is England '90 189
Tracy Casling
- 12 Theorising Post-Socialist Sitcom: Imported Form, Vernacular Humour and Taste Boundaries on the Global Periphery 205
Dejan Jontes and Andreja Trdina
- 13 Smile, Hitler? Nazism and Comedy in Popular Culture 223
Jason Lee
- 14 POTUS Stand-Up: The White House Correspondents' Dinner 241
Sheryl Tuttle Ross
- Index 257