

Contents

Part I The Relation of Rhetoric to Science

1. Rhetorical Analysis 3
2. Analogy in Science 21
3. Taxonomic Language 33
4. The Tale of DNA 54

Part II Style, Arrangement, and Invention in Science

5. Style in Biological Prose 69
6. The Arrangement of the Scientific Paper 85
7. Copernicus and Revolutionary Model Building 97
8. Newton's Rhetorical Conversion 111
9. Peer Review and Scientific Knowledge 129
10. The Origin of The Origin 144

Part III Science and Society

11. The Emergence of a Social Norm 163
12. The Social Drama of Recombinant DNA 180

Epilogue: Reference without Reality 193

Notes 209

References 221

Index 243