

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART I

Introduction	7
Organizing the Communist Party	9
Demolishing the Social and Cultural Structure	10
The Church is Brought in Line – De-Christianization of Romania	13
Controlling the Population	16
The Masquerade of the World Youth Festival	19
The Mock Elections of November 1946	25
Emergence of Militant Anti-Communist Groups	26
Escalating State Terrorism and Growing Popular Discontent . .	28
Romania and Her Neighbors	33
The Membership of the Communist Party of Romania	37
Recent Revolts against the Regime –
1. The Revolt of the Miners of the Jiu Valley	39
2. The Revolt of the Motru Valley, of Maramures and Other Places	40
3. The Revolt of Iasi	42
4. The Revolt of Brasov and Its Sequel	43

PART II

The Armed Resistance to Communism 1944- 1960	51
Foreword	53
The Soviet Occupation	54
The Part Played by the Soviet Army in the Communization of Romania	59
The Students' Reaction to Communization	62
Moscow's Direct Intervention	63
Collectivization of Agriculture – War against the Peasantry . .	67

Beginning the Armed Resistance – Resistance Groups	73
The Groups of Spiru Blănaru, Gheorghe Ionescu and Ion Tănase	75
The Group of Major Lucian Dimitriu	81
Traian Marinescu's Lonely Fight	82
The Groups of Dabija and Diamandi	83
Partisan Struggle on the Southern Slopes of the Făgăraș Moun- tains – General Arsenescu and the Arnăuțoiu Brothers. . . .	88
Partisan Struggle on the Northern Slopes of the Făgăraș Moun- tains – The Group of Gavrilă	95
The Group of the Mehedinți Mountains	101
Partisan Struggle in Maramureș – The Movement of Gavrilă Stri- funda, the Group of Colonel Blidaru	101
Partisan Struggle in the Vrancea Mountains – The Groups of Io- nel and Gheorghe Paragină	104
Partisan Struggle in Northern Moldavia – Decebal's Guards – the Group of Father Filaret Gămălău and Jenica Arnăutu	107
Other Known Episodes of Armed Resistance to Communism . . .	109