
Contents

Abstracts of papers	xi
Biographical details of contributors	xxv
Abbreviations used in the text	xxxii
Foreword to the IYOD, by Frank A. Heller	xxxv
Introduction to Volume I, by Colin Crouch	xli

PART I: EVALUATION: REVIEWS OF THE FIELD

1. Organizational democracy, power and participation Stewart Clegg	3
2. The debate on wage-earner funds in Scandinavia Berndt Öhman	35
3. Forty years of Scanlon Plan research Michael Schuster	53
4. The viability of industrial producer co-operation Peter Abell	73

PART II: LANDMARKS REVISITED

5. Some reflections on Participation and Democratic Theory Carole Pateman	107
6. Worker directors: an approach to analysis. The case of the British Steel Corporation Peter Brannen	121

7. Organizational democracy and the quality of work life: the man on the assembly line Robert H. Guest	139
8. The Ahmedabad experiment revisited: work organization in weaving, 1953–70 Eric J. Miller	155
9. Office workers revisited Michèle Legendre	181

PART III: RECENT THEORETICAL DEVELOPMENTS

10. Evolution or cycle? Worker participation in the 1970s and 1980s Harvie Ramsay	203
11. Education and organizational democracy Henry M. Levin	227
12. Change in collective identities Emmanuèle Reynaud	249
13. The employment relation, property rights and organizational democracy David P. Ellerman	265
14. The organizational theory of workers' management Branko Horvat	279

PART IV: RECENT RESEARCH FINDINGS

15. Problems of Yugoslav self-management Vlado Arzenšek	303
16. Organizational democracy and the multi-national corporation Michael Z. Brooke	315
17. The views of British managers and shop stewards on industrial democracy Gill Ursell	327
18. Worker participation and autonomy: a multi-level approach to democracy at the workplace Bertil Gardell	353

19. Worker ownership in relation to control: a typology of work reform Joyce Rothschild-Whitt	389
20. Consumers and organizational democracy: American new-wave co-operatives Ronald C. Ehrenreich in collaboration with J. David Edelstein	407
21. The dilemma facing Swedish consumer co-operatives: can members, markets, authorities and employees all be optimized? Victor Pestoff	433
22. Participatory political and organizational democracy and the experience of the Israeli kibbutz Menachem Rosner	455
 PART V: COUNTRY STUDIES
23. Political perspectives and worker participation at board level: the British experience Elizabeth Chell	487
24. Political power and industrial relations in Eastern Europe: normal times and crises Thomas Lowit	505
25. Self-management in Yugoslav government administration Onesin Cvitan	531
26. The Norwegian work environment reform: the transition from general principles to workplace action Bjørn Gustavsen	545
27. Collective bargaining and union participation in economic policy: the case of Italy Tiziano Treu	565
28. Organizational democracy and politics in China Martin Lockett	591
29. The politics of worker ownership in the United States Joseph R. Blasi, Perry Mehrling and William Foot Whyte	637
 Name Index	 655
Subject Index	665