

CONTENTS

Preface	9
Part One	The Faustbuch as Formulaic Fiction
1	The Faustbuch and The Golden Legend : The Faustian Reversal of the Saint's Life	13
	The Formula for a Holy Life	15
	The Faustian Reversal	17
	Luther's Views on The Golden Legend and the Saints	26
	The Shift from Catholic to Lutheran Values	32
2	The Faustbuch Genre	42
	The Aesthetics of the Faust Formula	42
	The Aesthetic Implications of the Characteristic of Adaptation and Expansion	57
	The Last Chapter	63
Part Two	Thomas Mann's Doktor Faustus and the Faustbuch
3	The Montage Technique: The Making of a Legend	66
4	Hagiography/Antihagiography: Narrative Voice and the Question of Salvation	84
	Narrative Voice: Narrative Ambivalence and Authorial Irony	84
	Hagiography, Inverted Hagiography, and Modern Novel	89
	The Question of Salvation	92
5.	The Pact: The Faustian Reversal as Nietzschean Ressentiment	97
	Adrian's Imitation of Faustus	99

Nietzsche's Concept of Ressentiment and Adrian Leverkühn	110
Adrian's Symphonic Cantata "Dr. Fausti Weheklag"	122
The Role of Nietzsche in Doktor Faustus	126
The Devil and the Concept of Time	130
The Disputations and the Teufelsgespräch	132
6. The Motif of Love	136
Envy and Revenge versus Magic	136
Love as the Temptation to Convert	143
Adrian's Confession	146
Part Three Conclusion	148
Notes	151
Bibliography of Works Cited	167
Index	177