

Stormtroopers

A Social, Economic and Ideological Analysis,
1929-35

CONAN FISCHER

Lecturer in History, Heriot-Watt University

London

GEORGE ALLEN & UNWIN

Boston

Sydney

Contents

Preface	page	vii
Abbreviations		xi
Glossary of German Terms Used in Text		xiii
1 Introduction		1
2 The SA and German Society: Problems of Interpretation		12
3 The SA's Social Composition		25
The Occupational Background of the Active SA's Rank and File, 1929-35		25
Unemployment Levels within the SA, 1929-35		45
The Age of the Active SA's Rank and File, 1929-35		48
The Martial Status of the Active SA's Rank and File, 1929-35		50
Education, Religion and Politics in the Active SA Leaders and Reservists		51
4 The SA and the Employment Question		82
The State, Public Institutions and SA Employment		86
The Private Sector and SA Employment		93
The SA's Own Measures		102
5 The SA and its Sources of Financial and Welfare Assistance		110
Financial Assistance and Welfare Provision from the State		110
Assistance from Private Sources		113
Assistance from the Nazi Movement		115
The Provision of Assistance from within the SA		122
6 Ideology and Politics of the SA		143
Ideological Heterogeneity and Radical Activism within the SA		148
The Response of the Leadership		159
7 Targets for SA Radicalism		178
The Social Democratic Movement		178
The Catholic Movement		183
The Conservative Right		186
Regulated Society: Authority, Institutions and Privilege		190
The Nazi Party		194
Individuals		196
8 The SA in the Radical Camp: Stormtroopers and Communists		206
9 Conclusion		223
Sources		226
Index		233