

CONTENTS

Preface and acknowledgements	IX
Abbreviations	XIV
Chapter One. Business agents and business managers
A. Introduction	1
B. Definition and sources	5
C. Greek terminology	32
D. Conclusion	35
Chapter Two. Indirect agency in Roman law
A. Introduction	40
B. Relationship between third contracting party and principal/agent (actiones adiecticiae qualitatis)	46
C. Historical development	70
D. Relationship between principal and agent	100
E. Conclusion	114
Chapter Three. Managers of agricultural estates
A. Italian agriculture in the mid-Republican period ...	117
B. Systems of management	129
C. Social and economic aspects of the vilicus system ...	146
D. Vilici as business managers	169
E. Farm workers and the chain of command	175
F. Conclusion	199
Chapter Four. Production and distribution of clay artifacts
A. Infrastructure	201
B. Bricks and tiles	217
C. Amphorae	244
D. Pottery (terra sigillata)	276
E. Terracotta lamps	303
F. Conclusion	318
Chapter Five. Direct management and public administration: four case studies
A. Introduction	322

B. Tax collection (vectigalia)	325
C. Entertainment	347
D. Communications	368
E. Coinage	386
F. Conclusion	409
Conclusion	413
Bibliography	421
Appendix	442
A. Institores in Latin inscriptions (Italy and provinces) . . .	444
B. Vilici in Latin inscriptions (Italy and Sicily)	445
C. Actores in Latin inscriptions (Italy and Sicily)	463
Index
A. Ancient written sources	477
B. General (subjects, places, names)	503