

MAPS OF FLESH AND LIGHT

The Religious Experience of Medieval Women Mystics

Edited by

ULRIKE WIETHAUS

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

The Gradual of Johannes von Valkenburg frontispiece

Acknowledgments ix

Contributors xi

1

Introduction

ULRIKE WIETHAUS 1

2

The Rhetoric of Orthodoxy

Clerical Authority and Female Innovation
in the Struggle with Heresy

JO ANN McNAMARA 9

3

Mystical Bodies and the Dialogics of Vision

LAURIE A. FINKE 28

4

"She Wept and Cried Right Loud for Sorrow and for Pain"

Suffering, the Spiritual Journey, and Women's Experience in Late Medieval Mysticism

ELLEN ROSS 45

5

Interior Maps of an Eternal External

The Spiritual Rhetoric of Maria Domitilla Galluzzi d'Acqui

E. ANN MATTER 60

6

An Example of Spiritual Friendship

The Correspondence Between Heinrich of Nördlingen and Margaretha Ebner

MARGOT SCHMIDT

TRANSLATED BY SUSAN JOHNSON 74

7

In Search of Medieval Women's Friendships

Hildegard of Bingen's Letters to Her Female Contemporaries

ULRIKE WIETHAUS 93

8

Reality as Imitation

The Role of Religious Imagery Among the Beguines of the Low Countries

JOANNA E. ZIEGLER 112

9

Text and Context in Hildegard of Bingen's Ordo Virtutum

PATRICIA A. KAZAROW 127

Notes 155

Bibliography 183

Index 199