

CONTENTS

Preface		v
Chapter 1:	INTRODUCTION	1
	1. The Middle Kingdom transcription of Semitic names	1
	2. The South Semitic alphabets	2
	3. The Greek alphabet	3
Chapter 2:	THE MIDDLE KINGDOM TRANSCRIPTION OF SEMITIC NAMES AND THE GENESIS OF THE ALPHABET	4
	1. Introduction	4
	2. "Group writing" in the New Kingdom	4
	3. The writing of foreign names in the Middle Kingdom	5
	1. Sources	5
	2. Internal chronology	6
	4. The systems of writing foreign names in the Middle and New Kingdoms—development and links	8
	5. Semitic sounds and their transliteration during the Twelfth–Thirteenth Dynasties	10
	1. Table	10
	2. Notes on the Semitic consonants	18
	3. Egyptian bi- and trilateral signs with consonantal value	20
	4. Matres lectionis	21
	5. Syllabic groups	21
	6. Summary and conclusions	24
Chapter 3:	THE EARLY HISTORY OF THE SOUTH SEMITIC ALPHABETS	28
	1. Introduction	28
	2. Archaeological and historical background	29
	3. The early inscriptions	32
	1. Introduction	32

CONTENTS

2. Inscriptions from the Arabian peninsula 33
Pithos from Hajar Bin Humeid (33), Jar from Tell el-Kheleife (35), Stele from Marib, Jamme 536 (36), Rock graffito from Jebel Awwad, Jamme 863 (36), Rock graffito from el-Hasa, Jamme 1049 (37)
3. Inscriptions from Mesopotamia 38
Sherd from Tell Abu Salabiḥ (38), Label from Ur (38), Bowl fragment from Ur (39), Brick from Ur (40), Tablet from Uruk (41), Tablet from Nippur (42)
4. Mesopotamian-style seals of unknown provenance 43
Cherkasky seal (43), Ward seal 1209 (44), Cylinder seal from Anah (45), Erlenmeyer cylinder seal (46), Seal from the ex-Moore collection (47), Ward seal 1208 (48), Seal in the Walters Art Gallery (49), Erlenmeyer stamp seal (50), Seal in the Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris (51), Brussels seal (51), Ward seal 1211 (53), Vienna seal 1247 (55)
5. Inscriptions from Syria-Palestine 58
Sherds from the City of David, Jerusalem (58)
6. Seals of Syro-Transjordanian style 59
Seal in Munich (59), Seal in the Musée du Louvre (61), Seal at Yale University (62), Vienna seal 1145 (63), Berlin seal 2620 (64), Berlin seal 2622 (64)
7. Miscellaneous 65
Tell Deir <sup>c</sup>Alla tablets and Kamid el-Loz sherds (65) Impression in the Ecole Biblique, Jerusalem (65), Queen Alia Airport seal (66), Ghrareh impression (67)

CONTENTS

	8. Summary and conclusions	68
	Mesopotamian-style seals (69), Syro- Transjordanian-style seals (72), Dis- tribution of the early South Semitic scripts (73), Names (74)
	4. Beginning of the South Semitic script	76
	1. Palaeography	76
	2. Northwest Semitic palaeography and the date and nature of the adoption of the alphabet in Arabia	86
	3. The order of the South Semitic al- phabet and the letter names	90
	5. Conclusions	93
Chapter 4:	NORTHWEST SEMITIC PALAEOGRAPHY AND THE BIRTH-DATE OF THE GREEK ALPHABET	94
	1. Naveh's view	94
	2. A critique of Naveh's view and an alternative	94
	3. Summary and conclusions	96
Chart 1:	The letters of the early South Semitic in- scriptions	99
Chart 2:	The Northwest Semitic letters of the elev- enth-ninth centuries and the early Greek letters	100
	Literature and abbreviations	101
	Index of museums and collections	113
	General index	116
	Index of Semitic and Egyptian words	123
	Semitic words in transcription	123
	Semitic words in transliteration	123
	Egyptian words in transliteration	124
Figures		