

CONTENTS

I. PROMOTERS AND PRECURSORS: RICHARD HAKLUYT, CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH, AND MORTON OF MERRYMOUNT	3
II. MASTER JOHN WHITE, OF DORCHESTER	21
III. JOHN WINTHROP, ESQUIRE	51
1. THE PURITAN SQUIRE	51
2. THE TRANSFER OF THE CHARTER	65
3. GOVERNOR OF THE MASSACHUSETTS	79
IV. MASTER THOMAS SHEPARD	105
V. JOHN HULL OF BOSTON, GOLDSMITH	135
1. THE ARTIST	135
2. THE BUSINESS MAN	159
VI. HENRY DUNSTER, PRESIDENT OF HARVARD	183
VII. NATHANIEL WARD, LAWMAKER AND WIT	217
VIII. ROBERT CHILD, REMONSTRANT	244
IX. JOHN WINTHROP, JR., INDUSTRIAL PIONEER	269
X. JOHN ELIOT, APOSTLE TO THE INDIANS	289
XI. MISTRESS ANNE BRADSTREET	320
APPENDIX	337
BIBLIOGRAPHY	347
INDEX	357

ILLUSTRATIONS

JOHN WINTHROP, JR.	Frontispiece
From Miss Clara Bowdoin Winthrop's copy of the portrait painted in England, probably in 1635. owned by Grenville Lindall Winthrop, Esq.
CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH	8
From his Map of New England, in his Description of New England, 1616.
TITLE-PAGE OF MORTON'S 'NEW ENGLISH CANAAN'	16
From the copy in the Massachusetts Historical Society.
JOHN WHITE'S BIRTHPLACE, AND DORCHESTER RECTORY	22
Photographs lent by Mrs. Mary Fifield King
TITLE-PAGE OF 'THE PLANTERS PLEA'	34
From the copy in the Massachusetts Historical Society.
GOVERNOR JOHN ENDECOTT	40
Æt. 76. From the portrait painted in 1665, the last year of his life, and transmitted from father to son since that time. Owned by William Crowninshield Endicott, Esq.
MEETING HOUSE HILL, DORCHESTER, MASSACHUSETTS	46
From a painting by John R. Penniman, about 1790, in the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities.
GOVERNOR JOHN WINTHROP	60
From the portrait in the State House, Boston, painted in England before 1630.
SIR RICHARD SALTONSTALL	68
Æt. 58. From a copy in the Massachusetts Historical Society of the original portrait by Rembrandt, painted in Holland in 1644.
THE ABRAHAM BROWN HOUSE, WATERTOWN	88
Exterior and kitchen fireplace, as restored by William W. Cordingley and William Sumner Appleton for the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities.

GOVERNOR RICHARD BELLINGHAM	92
From a portrait painted in Massachusetts by 'W. R.' in 1641, owned by Thomas B. Clarke, Esq.
WILLIAM WOOD'S MAP OF NEW ENGLAND, 1634	102
From the first edition of his 'New Englands Prospect,' in the Boston Public Library.
TWO PAGES OF SHEPARD'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY	108
From the manuscript owned by the First Church of Cambridge, Congregational.
GOVERNOR SIR HENRY VANE	118
From a contemporary English portrait acquired by the Commonwealth from a descendant of Vane, and now in the State House.
JOHN WHEELWRIGHT	122
From the contemporary portrait in the State House.
A GROUP OF SEVENTEENTH-CENTURY CHALICES	130
The Winthrop Cup (1610), given by the Governor to the First Church, and others made in Boston for the same Church by Jeremy Dummer, and by Hull and Sanderson and Edwards and Allen, for the First Baptist Church. Photographed at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.
THE JOHN WARD HOUSE, SALEM, BUILT IN 1684	138
The property of the Essex Institute. Restored by George Francis Dow.
SEVENTEENTH-CENTURY INTERIORS	142
The Ipswich and West Boxford rooms in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.
CAPTAIN THOMAS SAVAGE	148
From the contemporary painting owned by Mrs. Frederick Cheever Shattuck.
MASSACHUSETTS COINAGE BY HULL AND SANDERSON	152
From the Cabinet of the Massachusetts Historical Society.
SILVER MADE IN BOSTON IN THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY	156
Chalices by Hull and Sanderson; beakers by Hull; salver by Timothy Dwight; tankards by Henry Hurst. Photographed at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.
GRAVESTONES OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY	160
Nathaniel Mather's, at Salem; Sarah Marshall's, at King's Chapel Burying Ground; and Henry Mountfort's and Jacob Elliott's at the Old Granary Burying Ground, Boston. From the Photograph Collections of the Essex Institute, and of Charles A. Coolidge, Esq.

ILLUSTRATIONS

xiii

- SILVER BY DUMMER, CONEY, WINSLOW, AND JESSE 164
Chalices and cups by Jeremiah Dummer; porringer, sweetmeat-box, and salt by Edward Winslow; porringer by David Jesse; braziers, candlesticks, salver, and chocolate-pot by John Coney. Photographed at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.
- FIRST DRAFT OF THE HARVARD COLLEGE SEAL 184
From the Records of the Board of Overseers' meeting, December 27, 1643.
- TITLE-PAGES OF THE BAY PSALM BOOKS OF 1640 AND 1651 198
The first book printed in the English Colonies, and the Dunster-Lyon version. From the copies in the Public Libraries of Boston and New York.
- TITLE-PAGE OF SAMUEL DANFORTH'S ALMANACK FOR 1647 210
And page for February. From the copy in the Henry E. Huntington Library.
- JOHN COTTON 228
From the portrait in the Connecticut Historical Society, as it probably looked when painted in 1649. It was later repainted as a portrait of Increase or Cotton Mather. Photograph used in Bolton's 'Founders,' lent by the Boston Athenæum.
- TITLE-PAGE OF 'THE SIMPLE COBLER OF AGGAWAM' 238
From the copy in the Massachusetts Historical Society.
- HUGH PETER 242
Æt. 28. From the photogravure, in Bolton's 'Founders,' of the Treffry portrait painted in 1627.
- WILLIAM PYNCHON 254
Æt. 67. From the portrait painted in England in 1657, owned by the Essex Institute.
- TITLE-PAGE OF THE LAWES AND LIBERTYES OF 1648 264
From the unique copy in the Henry E. Huntington Library.
- THE IRONWORKS HOUSE, SAUGUS 276
Exterior and kitchen, as restored by Henry Charles Dean. Photographs by Wallace Nutting.
- MISTRESS WINTHROP ACQUIRES AN INDIAN SERVANT 282
Document in the Massachusetts Historical Society.
- EDWARD RAWSON 290
Æt. 55. From the portrait painted in Massachusetts in 1670, owned by the New England Historic-Genealogical Society.

ON THE ROAD TO NATICK	300
The Brown House, Framingham. Photograph by Wallace Nutting.
TITLE-PAGE OF THE INDIAN NEW TESTAMENT, 1661	310
From the copy in the Massachusetts Historical Society.
TITLE-PAGE OF THE INDIAN BIBLE, 1663	314
From the copy in the Massachusetts Historical Society.
SIMON BRADSTREET	322
This portrait, painted about 1685 in Massachusetts, hung in the Bradstreet house at North Andover until 1807. Owned by the Boston Athenæum.
TITLE-PAGE OF 'THE TENTH MUSE'	328
From the copy in the Massachusetts Historical Society.
THE BRADSTREET HOUSE, NORTH ANDOVER, BUILT IN 1667	334
From a photograph owned by the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities.

The end-paper maps are redrawn from Governor Winthrop's manuscript map of the Bay Colony in 1634. Original in the British Museum.