

C O N T E N T S

INTRODUCTION 1

Opium War Policies: Some Interpretations 3

The Literati: An Anticipatory Overview 10

1 THE LITERATI RE-ASCENDANT 17

Who Were the Literati? 20

Ideals of Career Patronage 23

Constraints on Clique Politics 29

The Hsuan-an Poetry Club as a Literati Faction 39

As a Bureaucratic Patronage Clique 41

As a Brotherhood of Aesthete-Connoisseurs 47

Political Failure 50

Aftermath: Lin Tse-hsu's Northern Reclamation Plan 59

2 THE RISE OF THE SPRING PURIFICATION CIRCLE 63

As a Personal Network 66

As a Political Faction 73

Ritual and Symbol 83

Literary and Scholastic Philosophy 87

The Ideal of "Moral Censure" (ching-i) Politics 95

3 THE POLITICS OF OPIUM SUPPRESSION 101

- The Case Against Embargo* 103
- The Legalization Initiative of 1836* 113
- The Failure of the Initiative* 120
- Intransigents Take the Helm* 125

4 THE MYTH OF VICTORY IN KWANGTUNG 137

- Lin Tse-hsu and the Anti-Opium Campaign* 141
- Lin Tse-hsu versus Ch'i-shan* 149
- The Siege of Canton* 159
- San-yuan-li* 163
- Paramilitary Realities* 169

5 THE DEBATE OVER THE CONDUCT OF THE WAR 177

- Ch'i-shan and the Tientsin Negotiations* 181
- The Case of Yao Ying on Taiwan* 185
- Wei Yuan and the Strategy of Defensive War* 194
- Yao Ying and Britain's Vulnerability in South Asia* 200

6 THE KU YEN-WU SHRINE ASSOCIATION 205

- The Mu-chang-a Government and Literati Political Influence* 209
- Political Organization of the Association* 217
- Ritual and Scholastic Philosophy* 225
- In Search of a Political Program* 231

7 THE END OF MANCHU DIPLOMACY 237

- The Second Victory of the Cantonese* 242
- Showdown* 252
- The Bonham Letter* 254
- The Crisis in Kwangsi* 258
- The Recall of Lin Tse-hsu* 265

8 EPILOGUE 273

NOTES 291

BIBLIOGRAPHY 365

GLOSSARY/INDEX 385