

Economic Structure and Development

Essays in honour of Jan Tinbergen

Edited by

H. C. Bos, H. Linnemann and P. de Wolff

1973

North-Holland Publishing Company - Amsterdam • London
American Elsevier Publishing Company, Inc. - New York

Contents

Foreword	v
Contributors	vii

Economic structure

Leif Johansen
Targets and instruments under uncertainty	3
Karl A. Fox and Paul van Moeseke
Derivation and implications of a scalar measure of social income	21
Henri Theil
Some recent developments in consumer demand analysis	41
Richard Stone
Personal spending and saving in postwar Britain	75
J. Sandee
A linear macro production function for long-term use	99
P.J. Verdoorn
Some long-run dynamic elements of factor price inflation	111
Jaroslav Vanek
Some fundamental considerations on financing and the form of ownership under labor management	139
Wassily Leontief
Explanatory power of the comparative cost theory of international trade and its limits	153

Development

S. Chakravarty
Theory of development planning: An appraisal	163
Irma Adelman
Planning for social equity	181
J. Kornai
Some intersectoral and intertemporal choice problems: Hungarian experiences in long-term planning	201
Bent Hansen
Simulation of fiscal, monetary and exchange policy in a primitive economy: Afghanistan	215
Tjalling C. Koopmans
Some observations on 'optimal' economic growth and exhaustible resources	239
René Roy
Demography and economic growth: Income distribution and way of life	257
Josef Pajestka
Need for greater world-wide rationality	273