

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

1

I SOURCES AND THE HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

1. Sources 6
2. Foreign affairs in Rome 11
3. Power and policies of the Ptolemies 16
4. Geopolitics 20
5. Terms and practices of international law and custom 22

II THE FAR-AWAY FRIENDS

1. The coming of the Greeks to the West and Rome 29
2. The Pyrrhic War and Ptolemy II's φιλία 33
3. Ptolemy, a friend of the Romans 51
4. Ptolemaic neutrality in the Punic Wars of the third century 56
5. Clouds in the western sky - Ptolemaic mediation of peace in the First Macedonian War (215-205) 63

III ROME AS A CHAMPION OF PTOLEMY V EPIPHANES

1. The embassy of 201/0 to Egypt 76
2. Tutorio nomine - Rome against Philip V 86
3. Rome, Antiochus III and the end of the guardianship 97

IV THE SAVIOUR OF EGYPT

1. Diplomacy on the terms of an aggressive policy 111
2. The "day of Eleusis" 124

V A PROTECTOR WITHOUT A PROTÉGÉ - ROME AND PTOLEMAIC DYNASTIC RIVALRY DURING THE REIGN OF PTOLEMY VI

1. Nova sapientia 139
2. An independent king 148
3. The testament of Ptolemy the Younger 164
4. Five warships against the King of Egypt 176
5. Death of an independent king 184

VI A PROTÉGÉ WITHOUT A PROTECTOR

1. Ptolemy VIII, a protégé of Rome in Alexandria 196
2. "To Egypt is a long and dangerous road" 204
3. Some omens of the end 218

CONCLUSIONS

233

APPENDICES

245

BIBLIOGRAPHY

252

INDEX

279