

Table of Contents

Preface: On Metaphor and Postmodern Fiction, by Russell Brown	iii
Foreword	vii
Acknowledgments and dedication	xi
Introduction: The Metaphoric Narrative	1
Metaphoric Narrative	2
Narrativity	3
Metaphor	6
Postmodern Pirates and Strategies of Appropriation	10
Ready-mades and Metafiction	12
Plagiarism and Reconfiguration	13
Piracy	14
"Catch me if you can": Process and the Metaphoric Narrative	15
Notes to Chapter One	18
Chapter Two: Not Waiting for Godot in America	23
The Beckett Signature	24
From the Abyss to the Labyrinth	29
Barthelme's Narrative Poetics	37
Snow White	37
The Dead Father	46
The King	48
Barthelme's Metaphoric Narratives	51
Notes to Chapter Two	52

Chapter Three: Pynchon's Asymmetrical Four	63
Piracy	64
Binary Opposites and the Motif of the Quest	69
Metaphors of Mediation	82
History, Identity, and Genocide	90
Metaphor	96
Notes to Chapter Three	97
Chapter Four: Acker's Strategy of Plagiarism	105
Imaginative Identification: Janey Reads The Scarlet Letter	106
Ironic Identification: "I am Jane Eyre "	111
Total Collision: De-sublimating the Repressed Hero	119
Gibson	120
Twain	123
Mature Reflections: Caddy Speaks	125
The Poetics of Plagiarism	130
Notes to Chapter Four	133
Chapter Five: Situating the Metaphoric Narrative	137
Notes to Chapter Five	140
Works Cited	141
Index	157