

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
2	“Stepping Stone to an Establishment”: The 1785 Campaign Against the Religious Tax in Virginia	19
3	“Prostrating Our Rights on the Altar of Superstition and Bigotry”: The Sunday Mail Controversy in the Early Republic	33
4	“Exposing Priestcraft and All Its Cognate -isms”: Chaplains, Temperance and Sunday Travel	63
5	“God’s Vice-Regents”: Political Preachers and the Crisis Over Slavery	93
6	How Christian Were the Founders? God and the Constitution After the Civil War	121
7	The Bible Wars: Religion, Morality, and Schools in an International Age	151
8	“Sunday Clubs for Wealthy People”: Taxing the Churches	181

9	“A Professedly National Secular Show”: The Chicago World’s Fair and the American Sabbath	207
10	Conclusion	241
	Appendices	253
	Select Bibliography	259
	Index	277