

Contents

List of Figures	vii
The Nineteenth Century General Editors' Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: New Perspectives on the Victorian Comic Spirit	xiii
1 Parody, Pastiche, and the Play of Genres: The Savoy Operas of Gilbert and Sullivan Carolyn Williams	1
2 The Fissure King : Parody, Ideology, and the Imperialist Narrative Patricia Murphy	23
3 Laughing at the Almighty: Freethinking Lampoon, Satire, and Parody in Victorian England David Nash	43
4 Tipping Mr. Punch "the Haffable Wink": E. J. Milliken's Cockney Verse Letters Patricia Marks	67
5 American Humor: The Mark of Twain on Jerome K. Jerome John S. Batts	91
6. Humor as Daughterly Defense in Cranford Eileen Gillooly	115
7. Dickens's Dystopian Metacomedy: Hard Times , Morals, and Religion Joseph H. Gardner	141
8. Transcendence through Incongruity: The Background of Humor in Carlyle's Sartor Resartus Abigail Burnham Bloom	153

9.	“Falling into Philistine Hands”: Swinburne’s Transgressive Correspondence Nicholas Freeman	173
10.	Arnold’s Irony and the Deployment of Dandyism James Najarian	191
11.	Salomé : Re/Dressing Wilde on the Rim Rob K. Baum	205
12.	The Laugh of the New Woman Margaret D. Stetz	219
	Notes on Contributors	243
	Index	247