

Table of contents

Perspective and perspectivation in discourse: An introduction Carl F. Graumann and Werner Kallmeyer	1
---	---

A. Perspectivity: Structure and functions

Knowledge and perspective setting: What possible consequences on conversation do we have to expect? Klaus Foppa	15
--	----

Explicit and implicit perspectivity Carl F. Graumann	25
--	----

Perspectives, implicitness and recontextualization Per Linell	41
---	----

Quaestio and L-perspectivation Christiane von Stutterheim and Wolfgang Klein	59
--	----

Grammaticalization of perspectivity Gisela Zifonun	89
--	----

B. Perspectivation in discourse and interaction

Verbal practices of perspective grounding Werner Kallmeyer	113
--	-----

Perspectivity and professional role in verbal interaction Inken Keim	143
--	-----

“You can say you to yourself” – Establishing perspectives with personal pronouns Ursula Bredel	167
--	-----

Strategic uses of self and other perspectives Alissa Shethar	181
--	-----

Irony, quotation, and other forms of staged intertextuality: Double or contrastive perspectivization in conversation	201
Helga Kotthoff
C. Perspectivity: Differences and divergences
Social discrimination and aggression: A matter of perspective-specific divergence?	233
Sabine Otten and Amélie Mummendey
Perspective-related differences in interpretations of injustice in close relationships	251
Gerold Mikula
Perspectivity in dialogues involving people with cerebral palsy	263
Ivana Marková and Sarah Collins
Perspective-dependent attributions in court: An investigation into closing speeches with the Linguistic Category Model	287
Jeannette Schmid
D. Perspectivity in reconstructive genres
Point of view, narrative mode and the constitution of narrative texts	307
Peter Canisius
Global and local aspects of perspectivity	323
Uta M. Quasthoff
Perspectivity in reported dialogues. The contextualization of evaluative stances in reconstructing speech	347
Susanne Günthner
The role of the narrative perspective in the cognitive-cultural context	375
János László and Tibor Pólya
Author index	389
Subject index	395