

CONTENTS

Preface	9
Abbreviations and Bibliography	12
1. Editions and translations	12
2. Secondary Literature	13
Introduction	17
1. Methodological Considerations	18
2. Public versus Private Letter	20
3. The Argument for Authenticity	23
4. The Historical Background to Speusippus' Letter: The Academy and its Competitors for Macedonian Patronage	32
i. Plato and Philip II	32
ii. Plato's associates and Philip II	39
a. Euphraeus, Python of Aenus, Delius, Phocion and Leon ..	39
b. Speusippus	42
c. Xenocrates	45
d. Aristotle	47
iii. The Academy's Rivals and Philip II	50
a. Isocrates	50
b. Theopompus of Chios	56
c. Anaximenes of Lampsacus	59
d. Callisthenes of Olynthus	62
iv. The timing of Speusippus' Letter	64
5. The Rhetoric of Speusippus' Letter	66
i. Historical Traditions	66
a. Heracles	68
b. The Delphic Amphictyony	73
c. The Depiction of Alexander I	77
ii. The Rhetoric of Misrepresentation	84
a. Isocrates' use of paradigms	84
b. The Foundation of Cyrene	87
c. Three Major Criticisms of Isocrates' Philip	90
iii. Plato euergetes – the aim of Speusippus' rhetoric	94
Text and Translation	101
Commentary	110

Appendix I. A Letter of Plato to Philip	161
Appendix II. Five Spurious Letters of Plato.....	175
Appendix III. The Expulsion of Amyntas III	178
Index Locorum	181
General Index	193