

Contents

Major Jurists Cited in This Casebook xxi

Introduction to Roman Family Law 3

Chapter I. Basic Concepts

Case 1: Freedom, Citizenship, and Household 12

Case 2: Slavery and Freedom 14

Case 3: Agnatic Relationship 16

Case 4: The Household (Familia) and the Pater Familias 18

Case 5: Sui iuris and Alieni iuris 21

Case 6: The Age of Majority 23

Chapter II. Marriage

Part A. Getting Married

Section 1. Capacity to Marry

Case 7: Less Than Minimum Age 27

Case 8: The Ability to Procreate 29

Case 9: Conubium 31

Case 10: Legal Impediments 34

Case 11: Incestuous Marriage 36

Case 12: Incentives to Marry and Reproduce 39

Section 2. Agreement and Marital Affection

Case 13: The Requirement of Agreement 41

Case 14: A Freedwoman's Agreement 43

Case 15: Not Standing on Ceremony 45

Case 16: What the Neighbors Know 47

Case 17: Marital Affection 49

Case 18: A Wife or a Concubine? 51

Section 3. Ceremony?

Case 19: An Archaic Wedding Ceremony 54

Case 20: Leading a Bride into the Home 56

Case 21: The Significance of Ceremony 58

Case 22: Cohabitation and Marriage 60

Case 23: The Man Who Died beside the Tiber 62

Part B. Further Aspects of the Marriage Process

Section 1. Betrothal

- Case 24: Arranging a Betrothal 65
- Case 25: Agreement to Betrothal 67
- Case 26: Betrothal and Marriage 68
- Case 27: An Affront to the Fiancée 70
- Case 28: Jilting Your Intended 71

Section 2. Dowry

- Case 29: Marriage, Dowry, and Public Policy 72
- Case 30: Giving the Dowry 75
- Case 31: The Bride Gets Cold Feet 78
- Case 32: The Duty to Provide a Dowry 79
- Case 33: Appropriate Dowries 81
- Case 34: The “Dowered” Wife 83
- Case 35: The Burdens of Marriage 84
- Case 36: Appraising the Dowry 85

Part C. The Marital Regime

Section 1. Manus Marriage

- Case 37: Filiae Loco 89
- Case 38: The Wife’s Property 91
- Case 39: Acquisitions by a Wife in Manus 93
- Case 40: Can a Wife in Manus Divorce? 94

Section 2. Relations between Spouses

- Case 41: Free Marriage: The Principle of Noninterference 96
- Case 42: Sharing Status 97
- Case 43: Showing Reverence 99
- Case 44: An Affront to a Spouse 100
- Case 45: No Infamy 101

Section 3. Procreation and Sexual Fidelity

- Case 46: An Unknown Son 104
- Case 47: Notice of Pregnancy 105
- Case 48: Protecting the Unborn Child 108
- Case 49: Custody of Children 109
- Case 50: Adultery and Marriage 110
- Case 51: Killing the Adulterer . . . 112
- Case 52: . . . But Not His Own Wife 114

- Case 53: Pandering 116
- Case 54: The Necessity of Divorce 118
- Case 55: A Double Standard? 120

Section 4. The Property of the Spouses

- Case 56: Separate Estates 122
- Case 57: Managing His Wife's Property 124
- Case 58: What the Woman Brings with Her 125
- Case 59: Q. Mucius's Presumption 127
- Case 60: Maintenance 128
- Case 61: No Gifts 130
- Case 62: A Fake Sale 133
- Case 63: Making Clothes 134
- Case 64: Exceptions 135
- Case 65: Severan Reforms 137

Section 5. Administering the Dowry

- Case 66: Equitable Ownership? 140
- Case 67: Fruits and Capital Gains 143
- Case 68: A Dowry Allowance to the Wife 145
- Case 69: Tying the Dowry to the Wife's Maintenance 147
- Case 70: Diligence 149
- Case 71: Necessary Expenses 151
- Case 72: Statutory Limits on a Husband's Power 153

Part D. The End of Marriage

Section 1. Captivity, Deportation, and Divorce

- Case 73: Captured 156
- Case 74: A Daughter Is Deported 158
- Case 75: Free Divorce 160
- Case 76: Divorce by Remarriage? 161
- Case 77: The Mental Element 163
- Case 78: Formal Requirements? 164
- Case 79: Free-Form Divorce 167
- Case 80: Amicable Divorce 169

Section 2. Return of the Dowry

- Case 81: A Wife Dies 170
- Case 82: Divorce and the Dowry 173
- Case 83: Retention on Moral Grounds 174
- Case 84: Retaining Necessary Expenses 177

Case 85: Reducing the Dowry by Law	179
Case 86: Useful Expenses	181
Case 87: Opening a Quarry	183
Case 88: Luxury Expenses	185
Case 89: Gaius Gracchus and Licinia's Dowry	186

Chapter III: Patria Potestas

Part A. Powers

Section 1. The Power of Life and Death

Case 90: The Consilium I: Almost the Entire Senate	193
Case 91: The Consilium II: The Quality of Mercy	196
Case 92: A Hunting Accident?	199
Case 93: Disciplining a Troublesome Son	202
Case 94: An Offense Related to Public Pietas	204
Case 95: An Adulterous Daughter	205
Case 96: Limitations on Killing a Daughter	207
Case 97: A Son and the State	210

Section 2. Consent to Marriage

Case 98: Who Consents	212
Case 99: Compelling a Child's Consent	214
Case 100: A Father's Consent	215
Case 101: Impaired Consent: Madness	218
Case 102: Impaired Consent: Captivity	219
Case 103: Parental Consent and Public Policy	221
Case 104: Divorce: The Emperor Pius Intervenes	222
Case 105: A Father Changes His Mind	223
Case 106: Disposition of Gifts	224
Case 107: Breaking Up Is Hard to Do	226

Section 3. Custody and Maintenance

Case 108: Stealing a Child	229
Case 109: Mother versus Father	230
Case 110: Deciding on Custody	231
Case 111: Self-Custody	234
Case 112: Maintenance of Relatives	235

Part B. Property and Obligations

Section 1. Acquiring for the Pater Familias

- Case 113: Owning and Possessing Nothing 240
- Case 114: Through Whom Do We Acquire? 241
- Case 115: Ownership and Possession 244
- Case 116: The Father's Knowledge 246
- Case 117: Acquiring a Debt 248

Section 2. Obligating the Pater Familias

- Case 118: The Uniqueness of the Son-in-Power 251
- Case 119: As Though He Were a Pater Familias 253
- Case 120: Suing the Son 254
- Case 121: The Father's Order 255
- Case 122: Turned to the Father's Benefit 256
- Case 123: Obtaining a Daughter's Dowry 258
- Case 124: Business Managers 260

Section 3. The Peculium

- Case 125: The Nature of the Fund 265
- Case 126: The Contents of a Peculium 267
- Case 127: Constituting a Peculium 269
- Case 128: Slave Women and Daughters 271
- Case 129: Acquiring Property 272
- Case 130: Free Administration 274
- Case 131: Gifts from a Peculium 277
- Case 132: Lending Money 278
- Case 133: Defending the Peculium 280
- Case 134: Computing the Balance 282
- Case 135: Deductions from the Peculium 285
- Case 136: The Deceitful Pater 288
- Case 137: Alternative Remedies 289
- Case 138: The Camp Peculium 290

Section 4. Liability for Wrongful Acts

- Case 139: Noxal Actions 292
- Case 140: Liability and Status 294
- Case 141: Defending the Son 295
- Case 142: Wrongs against Children-in-Power 296

Part C. Creation and Termination

Section 1. Birth

- Case 143: Paternal Power and Status 298
- Case 144: Presuming a Father 299
- Case 145: Periods of Gestation 300
- Case 146: Strange Bedfellows? 302
- Case 147: A Divorced Wife Takes Vengeance 303

Section 2. Adrogation and Adoption

- Case 148: Adrogation 304
- Case 149: The Adoption Process 306
- Case 150: Age Requirements 309
- Case 151: Family Ties 310
- Case 152: Adoption and Adrogation of Women 311
- Case 153: Adoption by Women 312
- Case 154: The Imitation of Nature 313

Section 3. Emancipation

- Case 155: The Decision to Emancipate 315
- Case 156: Study Abroad 317
- Case 157: Emancipated versus Freed 318
- Case 158: The State Intervenes 319

Chapter IV. Succession

Part A. Intestate Succession

Section 1. Civil and Praetorian Law

- Case 159: Rules of the Ius Civile 323
- Case 160: An Unwilling Heir 326
- Case 161: The Praetor's Rules 328
- Case 162: Emancipated and Disinherited 330
- Case 163: A Legal Puzzler 331
- Case 164: The Third Praetorian Class (Unde Cognati) 333
- Case 165: Illegitimate Children 334
- Case 166: Son-in-Power as Cognate 335
- Case 167: Husbands and Wives 337

Section 2. The Senatusconsulta Tertullianum et Orphitianum

- Case 168: Mothers Inherit from Children 339
- Case 169: Children Inherit from Mothers 340
- Case 170: Disqualifications 341

Part B. Heirs and the Will

Section 1. Freedom of Testation and Substitution

- Case 171: The Mancipatory Will 344
- Case 172: Common Substitution 347
- Case 173: Pupillary Substitution 348
- Case 174: The Causa Curiana 349
- Case 175: Who's on First? 351
- Case 176: Two Wills 352

Section 2. The Sui Heredes

- Case 177: Privileged Heirs 353
- Case 178: Defective Wills 354
- Case 179: Name Games 356
- Case 180: Disinheritance as an Advantage 358
- Case 181: Partial Disinheritance 359
- Case 182: Providing for Postumi 360
- Case 183: Postumi and the (Un)married Man 361
- Case 184: Subfecundity 363
- Case 185: Twins 365

Section 3. Bonorum Possessio against the Terms of a Will

- Case 186: The Challenge of the Emancipatus 367
- Case 187: Adopted Children 369
- Case 188: Passing Over Sui Heredes 371
- Case 189: The Son of an Adopted Child 373
- Case 190: Adopting a Son as a Grandson 375
- Case 191: Adopting a Grandson as a Son 376

Section 4. The Undutiful Will

- Case 192: Complaints about the Will 377
- Case 193: Duty and Sanity 378
- Case 194: Evil Stepmothers 379
- Case 195: A Mother's Mistake 381
- Case 196: Multiple Claims 383
- Case 197: Procedural Alternatives 384

Part C. Bequests to Nonheirs

Section 1. Legacies

- Case 198: The Lex Falcidia 387
- Case 199: Legacy of a Dowry 389
- Case 200: Legacy in Place of a Dowry 390
- Case 201: Generic Legacies 392
- Case 202: Things Acquired for a Wife 394
- Case 203: Legacy of a Usufruct 397
- Case 204: Legacy of a Peculium 400
- Case 205: Release from Liability 402

Section 2. Fideicommissa

- Case 206: Inheritance by Another Name? 404
- Case 207: Fideicommissum or Not? 406
- Case 208: The Gargilian Farm 408
- Case 209: Legacy and Fideicommissum 410
- Case 210: Bad Blood 412

Section 3. Gifts Mortis Causa

- Case 211: Motives and Reasons 413
- Case 212: Just Like a Legacy 416
- Appendix: A Specimen Roman Will 418

Chapter V. Tutelage and the Status of Children and Women

Part A. Children, Young Adults, Lunatics, and Spendthrifts

Section 1. The Tutelage of Children

- Case 213: Defining Tutelage 425
- Case 214: Appointing a Tutor 426
- Case 215: The Tutor as Owner 428
- Case 216: Authorization 430
- Case 217: Welfare of the Child 432
- Case 218: Pitfalls of Tutelage 434
- Case 219: Liability for Alienating Property 437

Section 2. Curatorship of Young Adults

- Case 220: Making Whole: Restitutio in Integrum 438
- Case 221: The Appointment of a Curator 441
- Case 222: Paying a Debt 443

Section 3. Curatorship of Lunatics and Prodigals

Case 223: Parting Lunatics and Prodigals from Their Property 445

Case 224: A Worried Mother 447

Part B. The Status of Women

Section 1. The Permanent Tutelage of Women

Case 225: The Weaker Sex? 450

Case 226: The Tutor's Authorization 453

Case 227: Escaping a Tutor 454

Case 228: Women's Wills 455

Section 2. Women's Public Position

Case 229: Where the Boys Are 457

Case 230: Order in the Court 460

Case 231: Male Jobs 461

Case 232: Ignorance of the Law 463

Case 233: The Credit of Women 464

Case 234: Protecting Women in Financial Matters 467

Case 235: Sexual Harassment 468

Appendix: Biographies of the Major Roman Jurists 471

Glossary of Technical Terms 479

Suggested Further Reading 489

Bibliography on the Roman Family 491

Index of Sources 495

Classroom Notes

The authors have prepared a set of teaching notes to accompany this book. Teachers may obtain a copy, free of charge, by sending a request on departmental stationery to Prof. Bruce W. Frier, Law School, The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1215, USA.