

The 1999 New Security Paradigms Workshop

Greetings, Prefatory Notes & Acknowledgements: Words from the NSPW Chairs ...	7-11
Session I: Protection
Secure Dynamic Adaptive Traffic Masking.....	13
Brenda Timmerman
Security Architecture-Based System Design	25
Edward A. Schneider
Session II: Availability
Survivability - A New Technical and Business Perspective	33
Howard F. Lipson, David A. Fisher
Optimistic Security: A New Access Control Paradigm	40
Dean Povey
Session III: Discussion
Strike Back: Offensive Actions in Information Warfare	47
Donald J. Welch, Nathan Buchheit, Anthony Ruocco
Session IV: Caveat Emptor
Security Service Level Agreements: Quantifiable Security for the Enterprise?	54
Ronda R. Henning
Cursory Examination of Market Forces Driving the Use of Protection Profiles	61
Kenneth G. Olthoff
Session V: Authorization
Paradigm Shifts in Protocol Analysis	70
Susan Pancho
Secure Group Management in Large Distributed Systems	80
J. Bret Michael, John McHugh
Session VI: Policy
SASI Enforcement of Security Policies: A Retrospective	87
Ulfar Erlingsson, Fred B. Schneider
Security Modeling in the Commercial Off The Shelf Environment	96
Tom Markham, Mary Denz, Dwight Colby
Session VII: Integrity
On the Functional Relation between Security and Dependability Impairments	104
Erland Jonsson, Lars Stromberg, Stefan Lindskog
Securing Information Transmission by Redundancy	112
Jun Li, Peter Reiher, Gerald Popek
The High Assurance Brake Job.....	118
Kenneth Olthoff	