

CONTENTS

Illustrations ix

Acknowledgments xxiii

Introduction 1

PART I: From the Partitions to the Moderna 5

ONE

The Nation and the National Art 9

Historical Outline 9

The Cultural Battleground 13

Art Theory and Criticism in the Service of a National Cause 15

TWO

Three Modernist Critics 25

Stanisław Witkiewicz's Theory of Modern Art 25

Stanisław Przybyszewski and the Young Poland Movement 27

Zenon Przesmycki and the "Sacred Torch of Art for Art" 36

THREE

The Polish Art World 39

Polish Artists Abroad 39

Kraków 43

The Academy of Fine Arts in Kraków 55

The School of Fine Arts in Warsaw 57

FOUR

The "Sztuka" Society 59

Founding and Aims 59

The International Arena 68

Ten Years After 74

FIVE

"Sztuka" and the Central European Secession Movement 77

Art Associations in Europe 77

The Kraków Secession? 79

"Sztuka" and the Vienna Secession 81

PART 2: Stars Are Born Out of Chaos 99

SIX

Impressionism and Polish Colorism 103

The Polish Impressionists 104

Nastrojowy Color 112

Jan Stanisławski 120

SEVEN

Peasants and Landscapes 127

The Land 127

Peasant Imagery 140

The “Zakopane Style” 169

EIGHT

Symbolism and Other Streams, Tributaries, and Rivulets 171

Józef Mehoffer 181

Stanisław Wyspiański 184

Jacek Malczewski 190

NINE

Expressionism and the End of Polish Modernism 211

Wojciech Weiss 213

Xawery Dunikowski 218

Witold Wojtkiewicz 226

The Interwar Years 236

Appendix 1: List of “Sztuka” Members, 1897–1918 241

Appendix 2: List of “Sztuka” Exhibitions, 1897–1918 244

Appendix 3: Guide to Pronunciation of Polish Names 246

Notes 249

Selected Bibliography 283

Photographic Credits 293

Index 295