

Contents

1. Development of narrative production in a multilingual context Ludo Verhoeven and Sven Strömqvist	1
2. Temporality and language contact in narratives by children bilingual in Norwegian and English Elizabeth Lanza	15
3. Reference continuation in L2 narratives of Turkish adolescents in Norway Ingvild Nistov	51
4. Age-related and L2-related features in bilingual narrative development in Sweden Åke Viberg	87
5. Sociocultural aspects of bilingual narrative development in Sweden Sally Boyd and Kerstin Naucclér	129
6. The development of co-constructed narratives by Turkish children in Germany Carol W. Pfaff	153
7. Influence of L1 Turkish on L2 French narratives Mehmet-Ali Akinci, Harriet Jisa and Sophie Kern	189
8. Development of temporal relations in narratives by Turkish–Dutch bilingual children Jeroen Aarssen	209
9. Temporality issues in Moroccan Arabic and Dutch Petra Bos	233
10. Bilingual narrative development in Papiamentu and Dutch Ria Severing and Ludo Verhoeven	255

11. Linguistic features of Spanish-Hebrew children's narratives Judy Kupersmitt and Ruth A. Berman	277
12. Narrative development in Hebrew and English Dorit Kaufman	319
13. Trilingual children narrating in Hebrew, English and Spanish Anat Stavans	341
14. Logic and mind in Spanish-English children's narratives Barbara Zurer Pearson	373
15. From affect to language: development of evaluation in narratives in spoken English and American Sign Language Judy Reilly	399
16. Narrative development in multilingual contexts: A cross-linguistic perspective Ruth A. Berman	419
Index	429