

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Foreword	xi
1 Introduction Bernardo J. García García (Universidad Complutense; Fundación Carlos de Amberes)	1
2 The court chapel: a musical profile and the historiographical context of an institution Juan José Carreras (Universidad de Zaragoza)	8
European models and traditions
3 The English royal chapel: models and perspectives Andrew Wathey (Royal Holloway College, University of London)	23
4 Rites of passage: music, ceremony and dynasty in Renaissance Florence and Venice Iain Fenlon (University of Cambridge)	29
5 The institution of the imperial court chapel from Maximilian I to Charles VI Herbert Seifert (Universität Wien)	40
6 The Chapelle Royale in the time of Louis XIV Catherine Massip (Bibliothèque Nationale de France)	48
The Burgundian inheritance
7 'Foreign' music and musicians in sixteenth-century Spain Emilio Ros-Fábregas (Universidad de Granada)	65
8 A meeting of chapels: Toledo, 1502 Tess Knighton (University of Cambridge)	85
9 Musical relations between the court and collegiate chapels in the Netherlands, 1450–1560 Eugeen Schreurs (Fonds voor Wetenschappelijk Onderzoek – Vlaanderen; Alamire Foundation)	103
10 Nicolas Payen, an unknown chapelmaster of Charles V and Philip II Ignace Bossuyt (Katholieke Universiteit Leuven)	121

Music in the Spanish royal chapel

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 11 | The form and function of the music chapel at the court of Philip II
Luis Robledo Estaire (Real Conservatorio Superior de Música de Madrid) | 135 |
| 12 | Processions to the ‘City of the Dead’: the Spanish royal chapel and an anonymous requiem from El Escorial
Michael Noone (The Jesuit Institute, Boston College) | 144 |
| 13 | The royal chapel in the etiquettes of the viceregal court of Naples during the eighteenth century
Dinko Fabris (Conservatorio di Musica ‘Niccolò Piccinni’, Bari) | 162 |
| 14 | The musicians of the Spanish royal chapel and court entertainments, 1590–1648
Louise K. Stein (University of Michigan) | 173 |

The royal chapel in court politics and culture

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 15 | Spaces for court music
José Manuel Barbeito (Universidad Politécnica de Madrid) | 197 |
| 16 | The pulpit in the royal chapel during the Spanish Habsburg era: a receptacle and echo of Baroque culture
Francis Cerdán (Université de Toulouse–Le Mirail) | 216 |
| 17 | The royal chapel as the setting for political struggle: praise and attacks on the royal favourite during the time of Philip IV
Fernando Negro del Cerro (Universidad Carlos III, Madrid) | 229 |
| 18 | The ceremonial of majesty and aristocratic protest: the royal chapel at the court of Charles II
Antonio Álvarez-Ossorio (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid) | 246 |
| 19 | The palace royal chapel at the end of the seventeenth century
Juan A. Sánchez Belén (Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia, Madrid) | 300 |
| 20 | The royal chapel and musical networks: festería, brotherhoods and friendly societies for musicians in eighteenth-century Madrid
Nicolás Morales (Casa de Velázquez, Madrid) | 328 |

Bibliography 355

Index 387