

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Abbreviations	x
A Note on Translations	xi
Introduction	I
A Theory of Form	3
The Grounds of English Literature	10
1. The Loss of Literature: 1066	17
Historical Form	21
The Lost Literature of England	33
The Shape of the Literary Thing	42
2. The Law of the Land: Lazamon's Brut	50
The Land as Warrant	55
Immanent Law	68
Conquest as Consolation	77
3. Right Writing: The Ormulum	82
Spelling Practice	86
Deconstruction	97
Ut Pictura, Orthographia	107
4. The Meaning of Life: The Owl and the Nightingale	111
The Living Thing	114
The Truth about Women	127
This Debate which is Not One	135

5.	The Place of the Self: Ancrene Wisse and the Katherine-group	139
	The Place of AB Language	145
	Place Itself	154
	Anchorage	161
6.	The Spirit of Romance: King Horn, Havelok the Dane, and Floris and Blancheflour	172
	Romance Form	176
	The Soul is the Prison of the Body	192
	The Grounding of a Thing in Air	200
	Works Cited	210
	Index	229