

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	9
INTRODUCTION	11
CHAPTER ONE	23
HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES OF THEATRE FOR DEVELOPMENT IN CAMEROON	23
Introduction	23
1.1 Ideology and Indigenous African Performance	24
1.2 Critical Realism in Cameroon Theatre (1959-1985): A Preliminary Survey	35
1.3 Radical Anglophone Cameroon Theatre: A Preliminary Survey	46
1.4 The Advent of Theatre for Development in Cameroon	54
1.5 Conclusion	60
CHAPTER TWO	62
THE POLITICS OF ENVIRONMENTAL RESOURCE MANAGEMENT IN CAMEROON	62
Introduction	62
2.1 Biodiversity and the Theories of Conservation	64
2.2 The Genealogy of Conservation Paradigms in Cameroon	67
2.3 The State and the Hegemonic Discourse of Postcolonial Conservation in Cameroon	71
2.4 Foreign Assistance and Conservation in Cameroon	76
2.5 Conclusion	81
CHAPTER THREE	82
LIMITATIONS OF AN INTERVENTIONIST APPROACH TO ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION IN CAMEROON	82
Introduction	82
3.1 A Brief Survey of the Evolution of Environmental Education in Cameroon	83
3.2 Cameroon Environmental Education in Practice: A Critique	86
3.3 Indigenous Knowledge in Environmental Education	101
3.4 Conclusion	108

CHAPTER FOUR	110
THEATRE PROJECTS ON ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION:
CASE STUDIES.....	110
Introduction	110
4.1 Bamendankwe Theatre Workshop on Environmental Education	111
4.2 Mount Cameroon Project (MCP) Environmental Theatre Campaign.....	124
4.3 The Korup National Park Theatre Campaign	131
4.4 The Tinto Popular Theatre Workshop	139
4.5 The MCP/CRC Environmental Drama Competition for Schools	150
4.6 Comparing the Case Studies.....	156
CHAPTER FIVE	161
THE MYTHS AND POLITICS OF THEATRE FOR DEVELOPMENT	161
Introduction	161
5.1 The Myth of Development	162
5.2 The Myth of Participation	168
5.3 The Myth of Community.....	171
CONCLUSIONS	175
BIBLIOGRAPHY	179
Index	188