

Contents

| | |
|---|------------|
| Acknowledgements | vii |
| Copyright Acknowledgements | viii |
| Introduction: A Place in the Word | 1 |
| 1 Life/Writing in the Colonial and Postcolonial Contexts | 9 |
| Autobiography, Autobiographical Expression, Fictions of Identity | 9 |
| Postcolonial Studies, the Postcolonial Subject and Motivated Reading Studies | 32 |
| 2 Mouloud Feraoun: Life Story, Life-Writing, History | 53 |
| Naming the Poor Man's Son: Identity and the Colonised Subject in Le Fils du pauvre | 59 |
| Poverty, Knowledge and Self-Knowledge | 62 |
| A Dialogue with Self and Others: Lettres à ses amis | 87 |
| Witnessing History, the Self as Witness: Journal 1955–1962 | 104 |
| 3 Albert Memmi: Fictions of Identity and the Quest for Truth | 131 |
| Negotiating a Jewish Identity: the Stationary Nomad | 135 |
| Poverty, Self-Knowledge and Political Knowledge in La Statue de sel | 149 |
| The Self as Writer in Le Scorpion ou la confession imaginaire | 176 |
| 4 Abdelkébir Khatibi: The Deciphering of Memory and the Potential of Postcolonial Identity | 205 |
| Writing and the Multiple Discourses of Selfhood | 209 |
| Memory, Myth and the Postcolonial Subject in La Mémoire tatouée | 221 |
| Writing Strategies and the Deciphering of a 'Tattooed Memory' | 237 |
| 5 Assia Djebar: History, Selfhood and the Possession of Knowledge | 248 |
| The (Re-)Possession of Knowledge and the Relationship to History in L'Amour, la fantasia | 258 |
| Myth, Metaphor and the Power of Language | 287 |

vi Autobiography and Independence

| | |
|---|------------|
| Exile, the History of Writing and the Quest for Liberation in Vaste est la prison | 291 |
| Love and Self-Knowledge | 293 |
| The History of Writing | 302 |
| Knowledge and Selfhood | 310 |
| Conclusion: A Place in the World | 334 |
| Notes | 341 |
| Bibliography | 380 |
| Index | 391 |