

Contents

How to Use This Guideix
Prefacexiii
Contributorsxvii

I. The Primary Literature—A Critical History

1. The Emergence of Science Fiction, 1516–1914
Brian Stableford3
2. Science Fiction Between the Wars: 1915–1939
Brian Stableford23
3. From the Golden Age to the Atomic Age: 1940–1963
Paul A. Carter.....45
4. The New Wave and After, 1964–1983
Michael M. Levy59
5. Cyberpunk and Beyond, 1984–2004
Michael M. Levy73

II. The Primary Literature—Annotated Bibliography

Annotated Bibliography89

III. The Secondary Literature—Annotated Bibliography

6. Science Fiction: Publishing, Reviewing, Readers, and Libraries Neil Barron	497
7. General Reference Works Neil Barron	502
8. Online Resources Neil Barron and William Contento	516
9. History and Criticism Gary K. Wolfe	523
10. Author Studies Richard L. McKinney, Neil Barron, and Michael A. Morrison	613
11. Science Fiction in Film, Television, and Radio Joseph Milicia and Michael Klossner	678
12. Science Fiction Illustration Walter Albert and Neil Barron	735
13. Science Fiction Magazines and Fandom Joe Sanders	775
14. Teaching Science Fiction Dennis M. Kratz	793
15. Research Library Collections of Science Fiction Hal W. Hall	811
16. Listings Neil Barron
Best Books	837
Awards.....	858
Series.....	860
Young Adult Books	876
Translations.....	878
Organizations	883
Author Index	887
Title Index	931
Theme Index	963