

An Introduction to the Study of English and American Literature

The present volume offers a compact introduction to the central subject-matter, approaches and research domains of English and American literary studies. Attention is paid primarily to the most important issues and categories of literary studies, to the methodology of poetry, drama, narrative and media analysis, and to the most important elements of English and American literary history. The introduction is ideally suited for use as a guide for independent study as well as an accompaniment to an introductory seminar course on literary studies.

Vera Nünning is Professor of English Literary and Cultural Studies at Ruprecht-Karls-University, Heidelberg.
