

THE BLUES MUSE

RACE, GENDER, AND MUSICAL CELEBRITY
IN AMERICAN POETRY

EMILY RUTH RUTTER

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA PRESS
Tuscaloosa

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: The Blues Muse Tradition i

1. “Don’t Like My Ocean, Don’t Fish in My Sea”: Blues Muses, Racial Uplift, and Queer Camaraderie 19
2. “Never Was a White Man Had the Blues”: Blues Icons and Black Power 47
3. “I Ain’t Gonna Marry, Ain’t Gon’ Settle Down”: Blues Women and Intersectionality 76
4. “Blues Falling Down Like Hail”: Blues Men and the Second-Wave Blues Revival 100
5. “It’s Gonna Carry Me through This World”: The Post-Soul Blues Muse 125

Coda. Repetition with a Difference: Beyoncé Knowles-Carter as Muse 153

Notes 159

Bibliography 191

Index 207