

Contents

Preface	13
1. The Theoretical Background	17
1.1. What is a 'character' in literary theory	17
1.2. The humanising approach	18
1.3. The de-humanising approach	19
1.4. Chatman and the reassessment of the humanising approach	23
1.5. Towards an integrated approach	24
1.6. Models of character classification: Forster, Harvey, Hochman and Fishelov	26
2. Secondary characters in Ulysses	31
2.1. Concept of "character" in Ulysses	31
2.2. Process of characterisation of minor figures	35
2.3. Linguistic tools of analysis	37
3. Buck Mulligan: Characterisation Process	41
3.1. Preliminary considerations	41
3.2. Information inferred from the character's speech-contributions	42
3.2.1. Buck Mulligan's conversational behaviour	43
3.2.2. Style variation and allusions	51
3.3. Information conveyed by the narrator	58
3.3.1. Verbs denoting processes	59
3.3.2. Manner adjuncts	68
3.3.3. Adjectives and nouns	72

3.4.	Other-presentation	76
3.4.1.	Stephen	76
3.4.2.	Mr Dedalus	80
3.4.3.	Bloom	81
3.5.	A closing overview on Buck Mulligan	83
4.	Simon Dedalus: Characterisation Process	87
4.1.	Preliminary considerations	87
4.2.	Information inferred from the character's speech-contributions	89
4.2.1.	Simon Dedalus's relationship with Stephen	90
4.2.2.	Simon Dedalus's poverty	100
4.2.3.	Simon's flirtatious attitude and musical talent	111
4.2.4.	An analysis of Simon Dedalus's speech-style	115
4.3.	Information conveyed by the narrator	122
4.3.1.	Conclusion	128
4.4.	Other-presentation	129
4.4.1.	Stephen Dedalus	129
4.4.2.	Bloom	132
4.4.3.	Molly Bloom	134
4.4.4.	Boody Dedalus	135
4.5.	A closing overview on Simon Dedalus	136
5.	Mrs Breen: Characterisation Process	139
5.1.	Preliminary considerations	139
5.2.	Information inferred from the character's, the narrator's and the monologist's contributions	140
5.3.	Other-presentation	150
5.3.1.	Mrs Breen's characterisation in "Cyclops"	150
5.3.2.	Mrs Breen's characterisation in "Circe"	153
5.3.3.	Mrs Breen's characterisation in "Penelope"	164

5.4. Some closing observations on Mrs Breen's characterisation process	168
5.5. A closing overview on Mrs Breen	169
6. Milly Bloom: Characterisation Process	173
6.1. Preliminary considerations	173
6.2. Information inferred from Milly's discourse construction in her letter	175
6.3. Other-presentation	184
6.3.1. Bloom's presentation of Milly Bloom	184
6.3.2. Bannon's presentation of Milly Bloom	192
6.3.3. Molly's presentation of Milly Bloom	195
6.4. Closing observations on Milly's process of characterisation	200
6.5. A closing overview on Milly Bloom	201
References	203