

CONTENTS

Introduction: What, How, and Wherefore	1
The Object of the Work	2
Renaissance Sacred Biography: The Sources	5
Methods, Topics, and Aims	6
Religion and the New Historicism	7
Reading Hagiography as Literature	9
Caveats and Clarifications of Terms	11
Religion	12
Saints	12
Christianity	15
The Reformation	16
Protestantism	16
Relevant Historical Data	17
1. Hagiography's Ideology:
Narrating Saints and Anti-Saints (I)	19
1.1. Saints as the Other, Saints and the Other	20
1.1.1. Otherness 1: Alienus	21
1.1.2. Otherness 2: Alter	22
1.2. Hagiography and Literature	23
1.2.1. The Narrative and Theology:
Narrated Saints and their Worlds	25
1.2.2. The Reader and the Hagiographic Text	27
Readers' (Desired) Response	28
Gaps in the Text	29
1.2.3. Hagiography and Changing Mentalities	30
1.3. The Search for the Message	31
1.3.1. Fourfold Exegesis	33
1.3.2. Ideological Narratives	34
1.3.3. Embedded Message	36
2. Hagiography's Contradictions:
Paradoxes, Metaphors, Ruptures	39
2.1. The Paradox and Religious Literature	40
2.1.1. The Paradoxical in Christian Belief	40
2.1.2. Religious Texts—Sacred Biography	42
The Dialectic of Martyrdom	43
The Holy Sinner	46
2.2. Gaps Generate Faultlines:
The Metaphorics and Symbolism of Fire	48
Excursus I: Metaphor/Symbol and the Discourse of Religion	50
Excursus II: The Fire Imagery of Christianity	53

2.2.1. Divine and Demonic Presence:
The Judeo-Christian Tradition	54
2.2.2. Hagiography's (Ambivalent) Fire Images	58
Fire Metaphors in Sacred Biography (I):
PURIFICATION/DIVINE PRESENCE IS FIRE	58
Fire Metaphors in Sacred Biography (II):
DESTRUCTION/DEMONIC PRESENCE IS FIRE	60
Conflating the Fire Metaphors	64
2.2.3. The Twofold Imagery of Fire:
Significance, Perspectives	69
The Ambivalence of the Fire Imagery	70
GOD IS A JAILER:
The Difficulties of Religious Metaphors	71
2.3. Where Paradoxical Tension Results in Failure	73
2.3.1. The Autonomous Momentum of Details	76
2.3.2. Sainly Sages and Shrewd Sinners	78
2.3.3. Pranks and Tricksters	81
2.4. Recapitulating Language, Faith, and Reason	84
3. Hagiography's Laughter:
Misrule, Derision, and "Filthy Communication"	87
3.1. Religion and Carnival: Before the Reformation	88
Excursus III: Carnival Revisited	88
3.1.1. Legitimate Misrule	91
Holy Folly	92
Mocking the Sacred – Yet Not Without Respect	93
Laughter and Liturgy: The Risus paschalis	96
3.1.2. Illegitimate Misrule	97
3.1.3. Sacred Biography and the Carnival	101
The Parody: 'Inverted' Legends	101
Power Structures Reversed: Laughing at Anti-Saints	103
The Saint's Disrepute: Holy Fools	105
3.2. The Reformational Carnavalesque	108
3.2.1. Exclusive and Inclusive Laughter:
Holy and Ungodly Fools	110
Protestant Writings: Laughing Out Ungodly Fools	110
Thomas More: Conservative Laughter	113
3.2.2. Aischrology: The Obscene in Religious Language	115
Polemics	117
Hagiography and Obscenities	120
3.3. Outlook	122

4. Hagiography's Nationalism:
Sainthood and Englishness	127
4.1. Nationality: A Prejudiced Discourse	128
4.1.1. The Middle Ages: English Saints in English Legends	129
Englishness and its Opposite in
Medieval Sacred Biography	130
Non Angli sed Angeli	131
English Fairness, Danish Tyranny	132
The Norman Yoke	133
'Saintly' Xenophobia	135
4.1.2. Elizabethan Protestantism: Christian, but not 'Popish'	137
Christian, but not 'Popish'	138
The Conflict of Loyalties	140
Spain and France	141
4.1.3. Tudor Roman Catholicism:
This Fortress Built by Nature for Herself	143
Christian by the Pope's Grace	144
This Fortress Built by Nature for Herself	145
Making Englishness and
Roman Catholicism Coterminous	147
4.2. Thomas Becket and Thomas More:
Reassessing Two English Saints	148
4.2.1. Thomas Becket: Patron Saint until Further Notice	149
Foxe's Becket	150
Protestant Desanctification	151
Catholic Resanctification in Effigie	153
4.2.2. Thomas More: Hereticis Molestus	156
Solomon and Persecutor	156
The Martyr	159
4.3. The Afterlife of DenomiNation	163
5. Hagiography's Dis/Continuities:
Narrating Saints and Anti-Saints (II)	167
5.1. Ascesis Reevaluated	169
5.1.1. The Middle Ages	170
5.1.2. Tridentine Catholicism	173
Obedience	174
Poverty	176
Chastity	178
5.1.3. Protestantism	181
5.1.4. Individuality and Sociability	184
5.2. Sainthood vs. Cruelty	186
5.2.1. The Appeal of Horror	188
5.2.2. Illegitimate Authority	191

5.3. Miracles	195
5.3.1. Protestant Wonder-Workers	197
5.3.2. The Hagiographic Revenge Drama	201
5.4. Further Dis/Continuities	205
6. Retrospect and Prospects:
Conclusions and Further Considerations	209
6.1. Review	209
Chapter 1	209
Chapter 2	210
Chapter 3	212
Chapter 4	213
Chapter 5	214
6.2. Religion, Imagination, Language, and Literature	217
The Religion Behind Hagiography	220
Hagiography as “Godlanguage”	221
Bibliography	225
(A) Hagiographic Texts	225
(B) Other Primary Sources	228
(C) Literary Theory, Criticism, Philosophy, Theology, Historiography, Patrology, Hagiology, etc.	233
Tables and Illustrations	266
Index	267