

Contents

Participants	vii
About the Seminar	ix
Introduction
Muslims, Christians, and the Common Good Michael Ipgrave	1
Chapter 1 Believers and Citizens
“In Broken Images”: Faith in the Public Sphere Maleiha Malik	7
Believers and Citizens: Christian Faith and National Belonging Michael Nazir-Ali	27
Faith and National Identity of Catholics in Bosnia-Herzegovina Mato Zovkic	35
The Identity of Christians in Church and in State Bogdan Lubardić	41
Believers and Citizens: Faith and National Identity in Britain Zaki Badawi and Michael Ipgrave	49
Notes	59
Chapter 2 Seeking the Common Good
Islamic Views of the Collective Tariq Ramadan	73
The Common Good: Catholicism, Pluralism, and Secular Society John Langan	81

Bosnian Muslim Scholars on Governance and Justice Fikret Karcic	93
Muslim and Christian Perspectives on Different Models of Governance and Justice Vladimir Ciric	97
Government and Religion in Malaysia Mohammad Hashim Kamali	103
Different Models of Governance and Justice: A West African Christian Perspective John Azumah	115
Notes	126
Chapter 3 Caring Together for the World We Share
Christianity, Islam, and the Challenge of Poverty Rowan Williams	133
Poverty and the Charism of Ishmael Timothy J. Winter	141
Speaking to the Heart Ellen F. Davis	153
Āyatology and Raḥmatology: Islam and the Environment Aref Ali Nayed	161
Notes	168
Conclusion
Building Bridges in Bosnia-Herzegovina Michael Ipgrave	175
Index	179