

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD	V
EDITORS' PREFACE	VII
ABBREVIATIONS	XIII
I. LIFE – Fernando DOMÍNGUEZ and Jordi GAYÀ	3
1. INTRODUCTION	3
2. SOURCES	3
2.1. Vita coetanea	5
2.2. Autobiographical references	8
2.3. Dating the works	11
2.4. Other documents	12
2.5. The Breui culum or Electorium paruum	12
3. THE GEOPOLITICAL FRAMEWORK: THE SOUTH- WESTERN MEDITERRANEAN	13
3.1. The House of Aragon and the Occitan- Balearic Kingdom of Majorca	15
3.2. Jews, Muslims and Christians on Majorca	16
3.3. “Raimundus senescallus mensae regis Maioricarum”?	20
4. RAMON LLULL'S CHILDHOOD	22
4.1. Family origins	22
4.2. The complex and peculiar social context	25
4.3. Marriage and children. Llull's participation in economic and social life	33
5. HIS CONVERSION AND YEARS OF EDUCATION	37
5.1. The circumstances of his conversion	37
5.2. Family break-up	40
5.3. Nine years of study on Majorca. Llull learns Arabic	43
5.4. The discovery of the Art	45
6. STUDY AND CONTEMPLATION; FIRST WRITINGS	46
7. THE YEARS AT MIRAMAR AND MONTPELLIER	49

8. JOURNEYS TO ROME AND PARIS	53
8.1. Llull's fruitless journey to Rome	54
8.2. Llull's stay in Paris (1287-1289). His public lectures on the Art	57
8.3. Fèlix o Llibre de meravelles (Felix or The Book of Wonders)	62
9. THE ART UNDERGOES REVISION	63
9.1. How the Art was revised in the Ars inuentiua and Ars amatiua	63
9.2. Llull's plans for an Ars memoratiua	65
9.3. Contacts with the Franciscans	67
9.4. Plans for a crusade following the Fall of Acre (1291)	70
10. THE CRISIS AT GENOA AND LLULL'S FIRST MISSIONARY VISIT TO AFRICA	73
10.1. The spiritual crisis at Genoa (1293): The absolute priority of the Art	75
10.2. Missionary activity and incarceration in Tunis	77
11. LLULL'S RETURN TO NAPLES AND HIS STAY IN ROME ...	79
11.1. The Tabula generalis and other writings. His contacts with the Muslims of Lucera	79
11.2. The election of Celestine V	80
11.3. Llull writes the Arbor scientiae	82
11.4. Llull's pessimistic assessment: Desconhort (Despair)	83
12. LLULL'S SECOND JOURNEY TO PARIS (1297-1299)	85
13. LLULL RETURNS TO MAJORCA AFTER A LENGTHY ABSENCE AND PREACHES IN SYNAGOGUES AND MOSQUES (1300 A.D.)	88
14. A JOURNEY TO THE EAST	94
14.1. The Mongol presence in Syria	94
14.2. A journey to Cyprus and Asia Minor	96
14.3. A possible visit to Jerusalem	96
15. MONTPELLIER AND LLULL'S SECOND MISSIONARY TRIP TO AFRICA	97

TABLE OF CONTENTS

559

15.1.	Montpellier	97
15.2.	A book dealing with the crusade, and the assistance provided by James II of Aragon ..	98
15.3.	Mission to Bougie (Bejaia): theological dialogues held in prison	100
15.4.	Shipwreck off the coast of Pisa	101
15.5.	Llull's stay in Pisa. The monastery of San Donnino	102
15.6.	Llull's activities in Montpellier	105
16.	THIRD VISIT TO PARIS	108
16.1.	The Art is approved by the University of Paris. Llull's anti-Averroist activities	108
16.2.	Contemporary events	110
17.	THE COUNCIL OF VIENNE	112
17.1.	Llull's ten requests to the council	112
17.2.	The writing of Llull's autobiography, Vita coaetanea	113
17.3.	The council's decisions	114
17.4.	On Majorca once again: Ramon Llull's Last Will and Testament	117
18.	LLULL'S JOURNEY TO SICILY AND HIS THIRD MISSIONARY VISIT TO AFRICA	120
18.1.	The reforms of Frederick III of Sicily	120
18.2.	Fresh initiatives by Llull to establish dialogue with the Muslims. His relations with the Spiritual Franciscans	122
18.3.	The journey to Tunis	123
19.	THE DEATH OF RAMON LLULL	124
II.	WORKS – Fernando DOMÍNGUEZ	125
I.	INTRODUCTION	125
1.1.	The characteristics of Llull's writings	125
1.2.	The languages of his works	128
1.3.	The transmission of manuscripts	129
1.4.	The cataloguing of Llull's works	133
2.	CHRONOLOGICAL CATALOGUE	134

III. THOUGHT: THE ART – Josep Enric RUBIO	243
I. THE PURPOSE AND FUNCTION OF THE LULLIAN ART	243
I.1. The external foundations of the Art: its contexts	244
I.1.1. The collective substrate of religions as the Art's point of departure	244
I.1.2. The inventive character of the Art and scholastic conceptions of science	246
I.2. The internal foundations of the Art: its texts and methods	249
I.2.1. The descent from the universal to the particular	250
I.2.2. The "place" of universals: the Alphabet and the Figures	253
2. THE EMBODIMENT OF LLULL'S METHOD IN THE ARTS PRIOR TO 1290	253
2.1. Ars compendiosa inueniendi ueritatem (c. 1274)	254
2.1.1. The Figures and passage through their compartments	254
2.1.1.1. Figure A	254
2.1.1.2. Figure S	257
2.1.1.3. Figure T	261
2.1.1.4. Figure V	264
2.1.1.5. Figure X	265
2.1.1.6. Figures Y and Z	266
2.1.1.7. The passage of S through the compartments of the Figures	266
2.1.2. The Modes and Questions	267
2.2. Ars demonstratiua (c. 1283)	269
2.2.1. The new Figures	269
2.2.2. Conditions, Modes and Questions	270
2.3. Towards a simplification of Llull's system	272
3. CHANGES CARRIED OUT UPON THE ART AFTER 1290	273
3.1. The Figures	274
3.2. The Principles and their definitions	275
3.3. The correlative universe	276
4. STRUCTURE AND CONTENT OF THE FINAL ARTS	280

TABLE OF CONTENTS

561

4.1. The Alphabet	281
4.2. The Figures, Principles and their definitions ...	282
4.3. A new, dynamic form of definition	284
4.4. The Rules	286
4.5. The development of the combinatorial procedures	287
4.5.1. The Table	288
4.5.2. The Evacuation of the Third Figure	289
4.5.3. Multiplication of the Fourth Figure	291
4.5.4. The Mixture of the Principles and the Rules	291
4.6. The nine Subjects and how to practise the Art .	292
4.6.1. The nine Subjects	292
4.6.2. The application of the Art	293
4.6.3. The Hundred Forms	294
4.6.4. The Questions	295
4.6.5. Training and instruction in the Art	295
APPENDICES	299
Appendix I: The Figures of the quaternary Arts	301
Appendix II: The Figures of the ternary Arts	309
III. A: THE NATURAL REALM – Josep Enric RUBIO	311
1. THE PLACE OF NATURAL PHILOSOPHY IN LLULL'S WORKS .	311
2. COSMIC SYMBOLISM AND THE ART	313
3. THE SIGNIFICANCE AND STRUCTURE OF THE ANALOGICAL COSMOS	323
3.1. Similitudes and signification	325
3.2. The scala creaturarum and the analogical structure of being	328
4. THE SUBLUNARY WORLD: ELEMENTAL MATTER	333
4.1. Chaos as the origin of elementated bodies	333
4.2. The theory of the four elements and their qualities	337
4.2.1. Proper and appropriated qualities	337
4.2.2. The mixing of the elements and the question of the complexions	340
4.2.3. The gradation of the qualities	342
4.2.4. Influences upon Lullian medicine	343

4.2.5. Ramon Llull and alchemy	345
5. THE CELESTIAL SPHERES	346
5.1. What contribution did the Lullian model make?	347
5.2. “Deuictio” and the influence of celestial motion	349
5.3. The problem of “action at a distance” (“actio in distans”)	353
5.4. The scientific status of astronomy and Llull’s critique of ancient science	355
III. B: THE HUMAN REALM – Marta M. M. ROMANO and Óscar DE LA CRUZ	363
I. THE NATURE OF MAN	363
1.1. The question Llull frames vis-à-vis man	363
1.2. Man in the Lullian world view	366
1.3. The composite nature of man	369
1.4. Constituent faculties or powers	375
1.4.1. The elementative power	376
1.4.2. The vegetative power	378
1.4.3. The sensitive power	380
1.4.3.1. The five traditional senses	381
1.4.3.2. The sixth sense: affatus	382
1.4.4. The imaginative power	384
1.4.5. The rational power	385
1.4.5.1. Memory	387
1.4.5.2. The intellect	389
1.4.5.3. Will	393
1.4.6. The instrumentative power	396
1.4.6.1. First and second intentions	399
1.4.6.2. The arts	403
1.4.6.3. Morality	410
2. MAN AND SOCIETY	413
2.1. Society as a ciuitas mundi	414
2.1.1. The civic realm	417
2.1.2. The ecclesiastical realm	421
2.2. Towards the foundation of a Christian ciuitas mundi	425

TABLE OF CONTENTS

563

2.2.1.	The crusades (passagium or passatge) ...	425
2.2.2.	Missions	429
3.	MAN AND HISTORY	432
3.1.	Periods of history	432
3.2.	The history and perception of nations and religions	436
3.2.1.	Gentiles or pagans	438
3.2.2.	Orthodox and “schismatic” Christians	442
3.2.3.	The Jews	445
3.2.4.	The Muslims	450
3.2.4.1.	Traditional arguments against Islam	452
3.2.4.2.	New arguments against Islam	455
III. C:	THE DIVINE REALM – Jordi GAYÀ	461
1.	RAMON LLULL THE THEOLOGIAN	461
2.	THE DEFINITION OF GOD BY MEANS OF HIS DIGNITIES	464
2.1.	The concept of Dignity	465
2.2.	The Principles in Lullian metaphysics	467
2.3.	The Principles as Dignities	469
2.4.	God as Subject of the Art	470
2.5.	The philosophical demonstration of God	472
3.	THE SCIENCE OF THEOLOGY	473
3.1.	The definition of theology in its historical context	474
3.2.	The definition of theology in the context of the Art	475
3.3.	Situating theology within the ‘instrumentative’	478
3.4.	The use and meaning of demonstration in theology	479
3.5.	Llull’s use of “auctoritates”	482
3.6.	The principles and aim of theology	483
3.7.	The Articles of Faith	485
3.8.	Theologians	486
3.9.	The precept encapsulated in the First Commandment	487
3.10.	Merit	490

3.II. Contemplation and the comprehension of one's faith	491
3.I2. Missions and apologetics	493
3.I3. Theology as practised by the laity	495
3.I4. Theological language	496
4. RAMON LLULL'S TREATMENT OF THE TRINITY, CREATION AND INCARNATION	498
4.1. The divine Trinity	498
4.2. The creation of the world	510
4.3. The Incarnation of the Son of God	512
5. CONCLUSION	514
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	517
INDEX	539
TABLE OF CONTENTS	557
RAIMVNDI LVLLI OPERA LATINA	565