

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction.....	1
Chapter One: Giovanni Caroli—The Conduit of the Sense of Spiritual and Political Crisis in Florence.....	49
1. Introduction. Giovanni Caroli and his Times	49
2. Liber dierum lucensium: prooemium and Book One	60
3. Liber dierum lucensium Book Two.....	84
4. Liber dierum lucensium Book Three	91
Chapter Two: Humanist Theology in Practice	123
The Historical Context.....	124
1. Declamationum liber	130
a. The Turkish Danger and its Religious Connotations.....	132
b. Classical, Biblical, and Patristic Allusions. The Disappearance of the Doctors	136
c. The Attitude to Rhetoric	145
2. Ficino's Praedicationes.....	148
3. Poliziano's Sermons.....	171
4. Rinuccini's Sermons	172
5. Nesi's Sermons	185
6. Other Sermons.....	200
Chapter Three: Marsilio Ficino and the Conditio Religionis: Quandiu duram et miserabilem hanc ferrei seculi sortem sustinebimus?	205
1. Some General Introductory Remarks.....	206
2. De Christiana religione : The "Manifesto" of the New Humanist Theology	210
a. Prisca religio and its Divine Inspiration. Religion As the Characteristic of Man	213
b. Praeparatio Evangelica	230

c. The Incarnation As An Intervention of the Eternal in the Temporal	235
d. The Teachings of Christ	239
e. The Apostles and the Propagation of Christianity	242
f. The Decline of the Christian World and Ficino's Proposals for Renewal	253
 Chapter Four: Giovanni Pico della Mirandola and His Theological Method: Between opinio and fides	279
1. The Theological Crisis	282
2. Quia errare in opinione Thomae, non est errare in fide —The Dispute in Rome 1486, and the Apologia	286
3. Pico's Attitude to Philosophy: Between Academic Skepticism and Religious Certainty.....	349
 Chapter Five: The Savonarola Affair—The Government of God As Republican Practice	369
1. The Savonarola Affair: A Case-Study in the History and in the Historiography of the Renaissance.....	369
2. Savonarola: An Anti-Humanist or A Pro-Humanist?	388
3. Savonarola and Politics	399
4. The Notion of Reform: The Transition From Theology to Politics	421
5. Spiritual and Political Vision: The Preaching Prophet and his Slogan	439
 Conclusions	463
 Bibliography	469
Index	485