

Contents

Illustrations	ix
Preface	xi
Prologue: The View from "The Light-House"	xix

PART ONE: THE AESTHETIC

I	THE "LOOK" OF BEAUTY	3
	1. Poe's Working Theory	5
	2. The "Look" of His Beauty	10
II	THE PERCEPTION OF BEAUTY	17
	1. Salvation and Terror	18
	2. Madness, Credibility and the Beautiful Subject	26
	3. "Ligeia": Multiple Intention, Unified Effect	28
	4. Catastrophe as a Beautiful Effect	38
	5. Summary	42

PART TWO: THE HORROR

III	SOME CONTEXT FOR THE MINOR HORROR STORY	51
	1. The Significance of the Minor Tale	51
	2. Mr. Higginbotham and Mr. Shuttleworthy	58
	3. Horror and Mr. Pennifeather	65
	4. Opium and Strong Tea	68
	5. The Poe-Mask Fallacy	71
IV	HORROR, BEAUTY AND INVOLVEMENT	77
	1. The Structure of the Horror Tale	77
	2. Into the Catacombs	85

PART THREE: THE ENVIRONMENT

V	THE MAGAZINE ENVIRONMENT	95
	1. Quality and Subject-Matter	95
	2. Illustrations	106
	3. Music	114
	4. Summary	118

VI	THE INFLUENCE OF THE MAGAZINES ON THE FICTION	123
	1. Poe's Moon Shot	123
	2. An Arresting Subject	133
	3. Putrefaction as a Commodity	142
VII	THE INTELLECTUAL ENVIRONMENT	151
	1. Concord and Fordham	152
	2. Poe as a Mystic	154
	3. Dupin as Transcendental Hero	162
PART FOUR: SOME FAILURES, SOME SUCCESSES
VIII	MORALITY AS THEME OR TECHNIQUE	171
	1. Poe as American	171
	2. A Purist's Morality	181
	3. Salem and Fordham	184
	4. The Walter Mittyish Mr. Poe	193
	5. The Short Story as a Musical Form	197
	6. The Moral Effect	203
	7. Poe, Melville and Hawthorne: The Moral Context	212
IX	WIDER HORIZONS	219
	1. Poe's Lonely Crowd	222
	2. Poe's Novel	237
	3. Judaism, Plagiarism and the Wild West	252
	Epilogue: He Fled to the Desert as to a Friend	261
	Footnotes	265
	Index	275