

CONTENTS

Introduction	Ken Hardman and
Chapter 1	Global Issues in the Situation of Physical Education in Schools Ken
Chapter 2	Claims and Reality: An Empirical Study on the Situation of School Physical Education in Germany Wolf-Dietrich Brettschneider and Hans Peter Brandl-
Chapter 3	The Importance of Research-based Evidence for Political Decisions on Physical Education Marjeta Kovač, Gregor Jurak, Gregor Starc and
Chapter 4	A Physically Educated Person Richard Fisher, Rose Marie Repond and
Chapter 5	Inclusion: Issues of SEBD in Physical Education Rich
Chapter 6	Transition from Traditional into Modern Approaches to Teaching Physical Education Michal
Chapter 7	Teaching Games for Understanding: an Inclusive Teaching Mo Ruan Jones
Chapter 8	Peer Tutoring with Task Cards Peter Iserbyt and D
Chapter 9	“Tuning up” Physical Education for Multi-cultural Needs of Modern Schools Malgorzata
Chapter 10	Physical Education Teacher Education: Harmonisation and Model Curriculum Development i
Chapter 11	Assessments and Qualifications in Physical Education Gemma van V

Chapter 12	Physical Education Teachers' Profession: Cultures and Frames	216
	Göran Patriksson, University of Gothenburg and Konstantin Kougioumtzis
Chapter 13	School Age Children, Physical Activity and Fitness and Health	232
	Karsten Froberg and Lars Bo Andersen
Chapter 14	Promoting Active and Healthy Lifestyles at School: Views of Students, Teachers and Parents in Portugal	249
	Francisco Carreiro da Costa and Adilson Marques
Chapter 15	Social Change and the Future for Physical Education and Sport	269
	Richard Fisher
Contributors	286