

Contents

Prologue	1
Introduction	6
1 Intertextuality	20
Kristeva's term in context	21
Kristeva's intertextuality and Semeiotikè	24
Barthes	32
Riffaterre	37
Interdiscursivity	40
Interdisciplinarity	44
Internet and hypertext	49
2 Influence	60
Bloom's 'anxiety of influence' in context	61
Harold Bloom	68
'Traditional' influence	83
3 Imitation	94
Imitation in context: mimesis or anti-mimesis?	95
Richard Dawkins: genetics and 'memetics'	100
Gérard Genette: rhetoric and the mimologic	106

René Girard: scandal and excommunication	112
Countering the Canon: imitatio v. plagiarism, forgery, counterfeit	120
4 Quotation	130
Quotation in context: dictionary or postmodern definitions?	132
Quotation's crystallizations: illustration in few other words	137
Allusion	139
Quotation's aptness: adeptness in other words	140
Abridgement as allegory and parable	141
Bridging as cycle and cyclification	143
Span and interpretation	145
Quotation as extraction: recirculation and exchanges in so many other words	152
Prophecy	153
Translation	156
Coda: the return of reference and the work of Paul Ricoeur	161
Conclusions	168
Notes	183
References and Bibliography	208
Index	228
Directory of Alternative Terms	238