

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
Part I: Critical Race Theory Concepts and Education	11
1 Critical Race Theory Critique of Liberalism	15
2 Critical Race Theory Critique of Colorblindness	21
3 Whiteness as Property, Interest Convergence, and Intersectionality	31
Part II: Policies and Practices: A Critical Race Theory Approach to Understanding Schooling	41
4 Macro-Level Policies—Segregation, Desegregation, and Resegregation	43
5 Macro-Level Policies—Bilingual Education	53
6 Macro-Level Policies—Higher Education	63
7 Macro-Level Policies—Affirmative Action	79
8 Micro-Level Practices—Critical Race Theory Applied in Schools and Classrooms	91

viii • Contents

9	Micro-Level Practices—Race, Racism, and the Everyday Practices of Schooling	95
10	Critical Race Theory and the Role of Educational Research	115
	Part III: Narratives of the Oppressed: Countering Master Narratives	123
11	American Indian Counter Narratives: On Survival and Free Money	129
12	Chicano/Latino Counter Narratives: The Value of Education	137
13	African American Counter Narratives: Telling One’s Story, Finding One’s Place	143
14	Latina Intersections: An Educational Memoir	151
	Conclusion	161
	References	167
	Index	175